

MILGRIM

NEW YORK CLEVELAND
600 MICHIGAN BOULEVARD SOUTH
CHICAGO

The Mode of Individuality

Originality in design, new style motifs, striking effects obtained by trimmings, colors and fabrics—as portrayed in the new Afternoon Frocks—serve to emphasize the versatility of

Bally Milgrim
"America's Foremost Fashion Creator"

Sizes
13 to 42

A MILGRIM Afternoon Frock of Rouge Canton, the sunburst pleating of the skirt and the looped hip bands add a charming effect — $145

The Vogue of "Modish Youth"

To the Matron as well as the Debutante there is a decided appeal in the youthful Modes of the MILGRIM Dresses and Frocks — priced from $59<sup>50</sup> to $85<sup>00</sup>

Director Retires

Prof. Harold E. Knapp, for 36 years director of the violin department of Northwestern university School of Music, will take the baton for the last time as director of the Evanston Symphony orchestra at its final concert of the season Tuesday evening. Prof. Knapp is retiring from the faculty of the music school and the directorship of the orchestra and will go to Florida to make his home at the end of the university semester.

Mrs. John Ritchie of 565 Arbor Vitae road left last Saturday to spend two weeks in Arizona with Miss Louise Otis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Otis of 644 Oak street.

Scouts See Pictures Taken on World Cruise

On Tuesday of this week, Aubra R. Dunham, son of C. R. Dunham of Glencoe, who directed the taking of motion pictures during the University World Cruise which started in September, 1926, and extended to May, 1927, and included thirty-six foreign countries, presented a program of the films taken on the trip for Scouts of Wilmette.

The program was arranged by L. E. Matson, chairman of the Troop committee of Troop 3 of the Wilmette Scouts. It was held in the Wilmette Parish Methodist church.

Some of the pictures were taken by Mr. Harris, official photographer of the New York Times, the remainder by Mr. Dunham, and all are his own personal collection. Colored slides were also shown. Several hundred Scouts and their friends enjoyed the program.

PATRONESS AT RECITAL

Mrs. Amuel B. Spach, 228 Leicester road, Kenilworth, was one of the patronesses at a debut song recital on Tuesday evening, April 3, in Kimball hall, at which the Musical Guild, Inc. presented Miss Maria Matyas, soprano. The student group of the Musical guild, of which this artist is chairman, entertained Miss Matyas immediately after the recital, at the Guild house on Rush street.

A number of dances, both formal and informal, have been scheduled for April 14. The Wranglers will give a formal dinner dance at Shawnee Country club. The Northwestern downtown Commerce club is holding its annual spring dance at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity is giving a "South Sea Island" party as its spring dance.

At Eastertide

Candy lovers with a taste for something better and different turn to Beach & Geils.

Special Easter Candies and Novelties await your choice in a display which this store has never equaled before.

Your Easter Gift

A box of freshly made Easter candies—ready packed or filled to your order.

(We wrap and mail to any destination)

For the Children

Candy eggs, big and small, with a variety of centers—chocolate shell eggs packed with candies—bunnies, chicks, and other animals and figures in candy, many imported—baskets filled to the brim with candy eggs—and various Easter toys.

We deliver twice daily
anywhere in Evanston

For Better
Home Made
Candies

1633 Orrington Ave.
Library Plaza
EVANSTON

367 Lincoln Avenue
WINNETKA

Beach & Geils