

Camp Fire Sparks

Mildred Olson's Camp Fire Group met for an all day session Thursday, April 5. The girls had planned to go out on some special "clean-up" work in the village, but the weather prevented. The girls worked on some of their leather projects, and had their lunch in Community House, after which they held their regular Camp Fire meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Winscott's Camp Fire group was prevented by the rain from giving special service in the "clean-up" work in the village on Thursday, April 5, but had a "Treasure Hunt" around Community House, followed by a regular meeting, after which they went to Harriet Daughaday's for supper.

'Aladdin' to Close Spring Season for Children's Theater

A gorgeous and colorful production of the favorite Arabian Nights tale of "Aladdin" is announced as the fourth and last play of the season at the Children's theater, Evanston.

April 28 and May 5 are the dates set for the four performances, and Haven school theater, the place.

Old Cathay is the scene of this moving and picturesque play, which means that the settings and costumes will be Chinese. There is much of magic, plenty of dramatic incidents, and not a small amount of humor. The version to be used was written by Theodora DuBois of New York and was played last season at the Playhouse by the Junior League of Chicago.

The play was chosen not only because it is a favorite with the children, but because it is a striking contrast to the other plays given this season. The first production was a French comedy of the seventeenth century, "The Make-Believe Gentleman," adapted from Moliere's "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme." The second was a double bill: "Dick Whittington" and "The Three Spinners," old fairy tales; the third, a modern play of fact and fancy, "The Poor Little Rich Girl."

TO SPEAK AT FORUM

Samuel S. McClure, publicist, author, traveler, and founder of McClure's Magazine, will address the Wednesday Evening forum on the subject of "Mussolini's Italy" next Tuesday, at 8:30 in the assembly room of the North Shore Congregation Israel, Vernon and Lincoln avenues, Glencoe.

On Fair Board

Mrs. Edward Hines of Evanston is one of the new members of the board of directors of the Woman's World's fair, which will be held under the management of Miss Helen M. Bennett for the fourth successive year, in Chicago, May 19 to 26, at the Coliseum.

Mrs. Hines took active part in the plans for the 1928 fair before she sailed for the short trip to Europe she is now enjoying. She will return to Evanston in time to fulfill the duties of her almost unique appointment. With the exception of Mrs. Hines and one or two others, the fair board of directors has the same personnel as that which has helped Miss Bennett in each of the three years since her vision for the exposition first materialized.

Over a hundred different lines of professional, scientific and artistic endeavors will be represented in the displays under the bright colored awnings of 250 booths. Women from all over the country who have achieved distinction in their chosen vocations will be present to explain them and demonstrate.

Do Not Expect to Compare—for Cadillac Stands Alone

Leave all pre-conceived standards behind when you inspect the Cadillac, or test its famous 90-degree, V-type, 8-cylinder engine.

Cadillac today establishes its own standards, just as has every Cadillac that has preceded it for 25 years.

And the new Cadillac is one instance in which exclusiveness and prestige can be enjoyed on the basis of a sensible investment.
