Checks Now Due From Artist-Recital Patrons

Notice was sent out this week to subscribers to the Artist-Recital series sponsored each winter by the Winnetka Music club and which brings to the north shore some of the outstanding artists of the world for the programs given in the New Trier auditorium.

The notice is to the effect that the subscribers' checks are now due and payable. There is a large waiting list, it is explained, and it is therefore imperative that subscribers mail their checks promptly to Mrs. Bessie Grant at the Winnetka State bank, the checks to be made payable to the Winnetka Music club.

"Mail your checks today," reads a portion of the notice, "so that you may not lose the opportunity of hearing such splendid artists as Claudia Muzio, Albert Spalding, and Vladimir Horowitz. The other two artists who complete the list for next season will be announced in the very near future."

PLAN BOXING BOUTS

Boxers from Great Lakes and Fort Sheridan to Compete for Winnetka Square Club

Many members and friends of the Winnetka Square club will recall the boxing exhibitions held on the main floor of the Masonic temple a year or so ago.

Announcement is made that there will be another good treat of the same character Tuesday, April 24, at 8 p. m., when a number of fast bouts between some of the best boxers at Fort Sheridan Post and the Great Lakes Naval Training station will be staged at the temple.

There will be bouts in all weights, bantam, light, middle and heavy, under the sanction of the Illinois Boxing commission, it is announced.

Tickets may be obtained at Adams pharmacy, Community pharmacy, Hubbard Woods pharmacy, North Shore pharmacy and from members of the Square club.

Charles A. Kinney Talks to Parents' Association

"The School Shop and the New Education" was the subject of an address delivered by Charles A. Kinney, director of Adventure Island Boys' camp before the Parents' association of the Orchard school in Indianapolis Friday evening. Mr. Kinney spent Thursday and Friday of this week at the school for the purpose of advising with the directors and faculty regarding a number of important changes to be effected in the school shops.

Give "Romeo and Juliet" at Woman's Club Luncheon

Three prominent Winnetka actors will take part in the little play to be given after the luncheon next Tuesday at the Winnetka Woman's club. Mrs. Taliaferro Milton will give the prologue. Mrs. William D. Sidley is to be Juliet, and Mrs. Laird Bell will play Romeo.

SPEAKS AT LAGRANGE

Dr. J. W. F. Davies of the Winnetka Congregational church will address the Parent-Teacher group at LaGrange, Wednesday evening of next week.

gregational church. The officers of the choir are Mr. C. F. Simpson, president, Mrs. William Ayres McKinney, vice-president, and Miss Alleene Thiehoff, secretary.

Speaks at New Trier

James W. Armstrong, Dean of Men at Northwestern university, will talk before the Junior boys of New Trier High school on the topic "Education" on Wednesday, April 18. The address will be made in connection with the Vocational Guidance series of lectures which is being arranged by the faculty advisors of the Juniors and is under the active direction of Samuel Vernon of the faculty.

Urges United G. O. P. to Work for Victory in Fall

Carlton Prouty, veteran Republican official in Winnetka, who last Tuesday was elected Precinct Committeeman of the 25th New Trier district for the fourteenth time, has asked WINNETKA TALK to bring the following announcement to the attention of all the Republican voters in the village:

AN ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking all the friends who helped me on Tuesday last to win my fourteenth election as Republican Precinct Committeeman. I have pledged my support to no party leader or political faction, and my sole aim is to insure Republican success at the November election. I respectfully urge all my fellow Republicans to forget the incidents of the late Primary, as I have already done, and to join in organizing for victory in November.

—Carlton Prouty,

Republican Precinct Committeeman,
25th New Trier Precinct.

"Gospel of Immortality," Sermon at Christ Church

The sermon topic of the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, rector of Christ church, at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning, April 15, will be "The Gospel of Immortality."

There will be the regular service of Holy Communion in the chapel on Sunday morning at 7:30; also the usual mid-week services on Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 9:30.

The rector will be away on vacation from April 15 to May 25.

PREACHES AT HARVARD

Rev. James Austin Richards left Thursday morning for Cambridge, Mass., where, on Sunday morning, he will preach at Harvard, and in the evening, at Mt. Vernon, his old church, in Boston. During the next week Mr. Richards will conduct the chapel hour at Harvard University.

MRS. A. M. FERRY NEW VOTERS' LEAGUE HEAD

Winnetka League Elects New Officers and Hears About Village Management

The complete slate of officers as proposed by the nominating committee was unanimously elected last Monday at the final meeting of the Winnetka League of Women Voters and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. Montague Ferry; first vice-president, Mrs. William F. Brown; second vice-president, Mrs. R. C. McNamara; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John R. Montgomery; recording secretary, Mrs. D. B. Grasett; treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Raclin. Chairmen of precincts: 4th, Mrs. Charles Kostbade; 5th, Mrs. George Friestedt; 6th, Mrs. David Bluford; 7th, Mrs. Guy Watson; 8th, Mrs. W. A. Hadley; 9th, Mrs. John L. Hamilton; 10th, Mrs. Herbert Pope; 11th, Mrs. Earl Green; 24th, Mrs. George Suker; 25th, Mrs. Hugo Layer.

The luncheon meeting last Monday marked the close of a season of great activity in that organization. Throughout the League program year, which opens in October, there have been speakers on "Efficiency in Government," "International Relations," "Child Welfare," "Legal Status of Women," "Social Hygiene," "Women in Industry," "Living Costs," "Education," and "Local Affairs."

The program on Monday was in charge of Mrs. Ralph S. Childs, Local Affairs chairman. During the year, through Mrs. Childs, the board has been informed of the work of the council, plan commission, and Village Manager. This meeting was the opportunity to present to the general membership the plan of government in Winnetka and the problems confronting the suburbs of a large city.

H. L. Woolhiser, village manager, clearly outlined the Village organization and explained the question of municipal ownership, particularly as it involved electric light users.

Robert Kingery, secretary of the Chicago Regional Plan commission, greatly interested his audience by telling how plans are made for handling the future growth of cities and providing them with adequate parks and playgrounds. Mr. Kingery also shared with the League the plans for the improvement of the Forest Preserve in Cook county.

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy outlined the plan for the observance of Better Homes Week in Winnetka. During the meeting sample primary ballots were distributed, and Mrs. Edwin E. Brown explained the importance of certain offices on ballots and urged careful study of the ballot before going to the polls.

Mrs. John VanderVries, the retiring president, was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers by the board of directors in appreciation of her services.

New Trustee Assumes Duties on Committees

William B. Moulton, the new member on the Winnetka Village council in place of D. F. McPherson, retired, has been appointed to the various council committees on which Mr. McPherson served.

The appointment was made at the adjourned meeting of the Council Friday evening of last week, following the official canvass of the ballots cast at the recent election and Trustee Moulton's induction to office.

Trustee Moulton is chairman of both the Judiciary and Police committees and is a member of the Finance committee and Plats and Zoning committee.
