

HIGH SCHOOL HOLIDAY

Due to an important teacher's meeting, there will be no school for New Trier pupils Monday, April 16.

Mrs. Bentley McCloud, Kenilworth avenue, entertained her bridge club on Wednesday of this week. Over the week-end she had as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olmsted and their baby from Milwaukee, Wis.

Mrs. Frank Cherry, Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, entertained her luncheon and sewing club on Monday of this week.

MUSIC CLUB MEETING

The Senior Music club of New Trier High school met Thursday, April 12, at the home of Delma Caldwell, 930 Linden avenue, Wilmette. The meeting of the Junior Music club was postponed until Monday, April 23.

FATHER-SON BANQUET

The Father and Son banquet of the New Trier boys will take place April 26. All "New Trier Dads" have been notified to save that date. The aim is to have five hundred present.

New Trier Debaters Meet Morton High Team

The New Trier High school debating team met Morton High school Friday night. The negative team of New Trier consisting of Frank Gilchrist, Peggy Gallagher, and David Schmid met the affirmative team of Morton at New Trier, while the affirmative team of New Trier traveled to Morton to meet Morton's negative team there. The question for debate was "The McNary-Haugen Bill."

ALPHA PHI BENEFIT

Alumnae of Alpha Phi sorority of Northwestern university announce a benefit bridge party at the Evanston Woman's club Monday, April 23, at 2:30. Mrs. N. A. Hanna, of Wilmette, will provide spring frocks from her shop in Wilmette in which members of the active chapter will model in a style show during the course of the afternoon. There will be prizes and refreshments. Tickets may be purchased from members of the active chapter or from alumnae.

School of Speech Prom Revived After 4 Years

One of the last formal events of the Northwestern social calendar, the school of speech prom, takes place at the Evanston Woman's club tomorrow evening. Plans have been made to make this a brilliant affair as the prom is being held for the first time since four years ago.

The club will be elaborately decorated, and unique lighting features have been prepared. Cope Harvey's orchestra from the Stevens hotel will furnish the music. Miss Naomi Merlien, chairman of the committee in charge, and Miss Katherine Hicks, will lead the wings of the promenade. On the committee are: Miss June Fellows, 848 Ridge avenue, Miss Helen Thelien, Miss Ruth Charowski, Miss Bonita Humphrey, Miss Billie Rinkenberg, Douglas Bryant and Rolley Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron V. Kanaley of 682 Ardsley road have returned home from White Sulphur Springs, where they spent a two weeks' vacation.

GOWNS

for

Afternoon - Dinner - Evening

COSTUMES

for

Street and Sports

Our

New Collection of

Imports and Original Models

NOW ON DISPLAY

N. A. HANNA & CO.

1168 WILMETTE AVE.
Phone Wilmette 467

912 SPANISH COURT
Wilmette 4085

Foster Shoes and Hosiery
for Women and Children

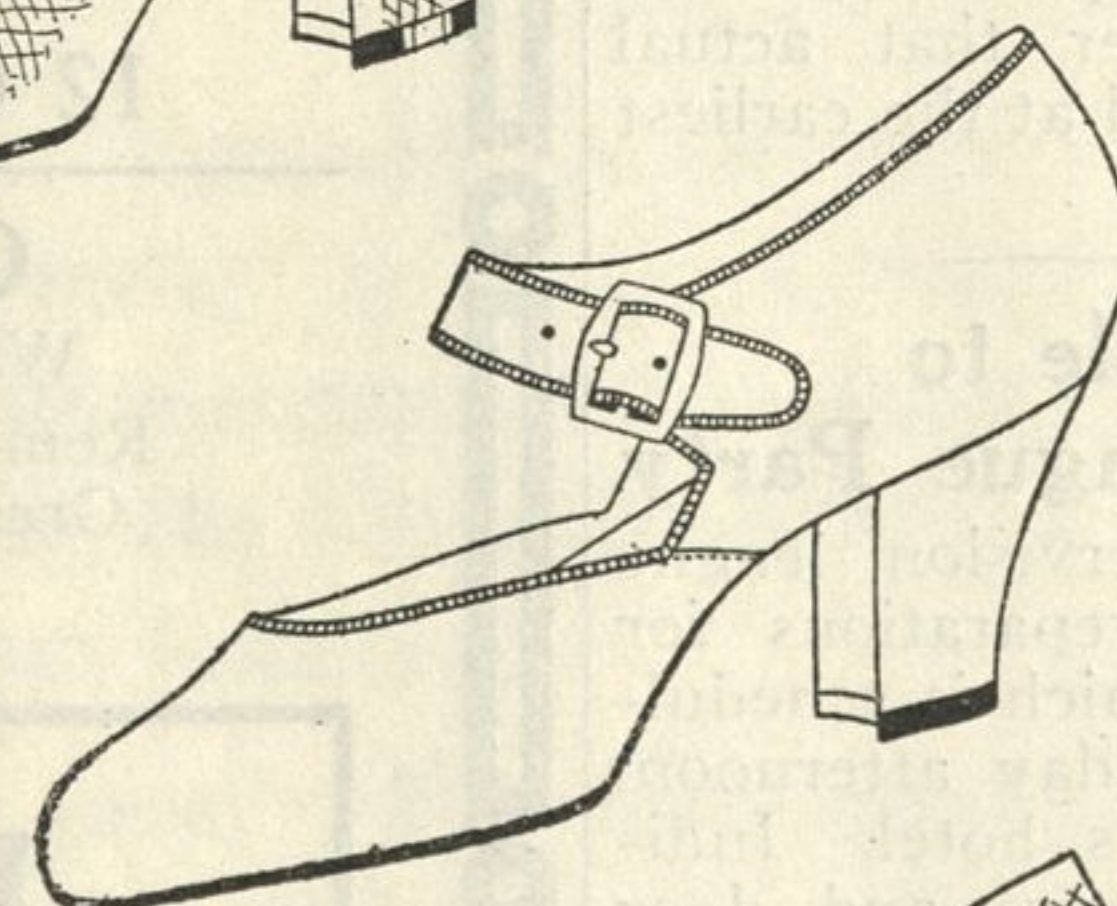

New "CAMPUS" Modes

expressing The Vogue of Youth

A smart street oxford in Lizard Calf

$12.50

A belt strap pump in Covert Beige Suede

$12.50

A Colonial Bow Pump in Lizard Calf

$12.50

Featured

On the 2nd Floor—at Wabash Avenue and at

The Community Shops

F. E. Foster & Company

115 North Wabash Avenue

Community SHOPS } 7050 South Shore Drive 519 Diversey Parkway
Orrington Avenue at Church Street, EVANSTON