

MARRIES TOMORROW

Robert Belt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Belt, of Abingdon road, Kenilworth, is to be married Saturday, April 14, at Van Wert, Ohio, to Miss Grace Purmort, of that city. Miss Virginia Belt will act as maid of honor. Among those who are leaving with Mr. and Mrs. Belt to attend the wedding are Mrs. N. A. Hanna and Mrs. Percy Skillen, both of Wilmette.

Miss Frances Howard of 1055 Wilmette avenue returned to Champaign Tuesday morning after spending the Easter holidays with her mother.

DISCUSSES FREUD

Rabbi Louis Mann held services at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Friday evening, April 13. The subject of his discourse was, "Freud Psycho-Analyzes Religion," it being a discussion of his latest book, "The Future of an Illusion."

Miss Barbara Oleson of Kenilworth entertained six girls on Saturday evening with an "egg-dyeing" party. There were songs and refreshments and each one dyed enough eggs for her respective family's breakfast on Easter day.

Tickets Placed on Sale for Theta Bridge Party

Tickets for the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae association bridge party to take place at the Country club, Wednesday, April 18, at 2 p. m. are now being sold by the alumnae and the active chapter. Mrs. Harold Boyle, 2002 Colfax street, Evanston, has been placed in charge of tickets with Mrs. L. E. Mitten of Winnetka.

This year is the fifth the Thetas have given a subscription bridge in the spring to benefit the house fund. Both floors of the club will be thrown open to the affair.

Mrs. George Peaks, who has been chairman of prizes in other years, is again at the head of the committee assisted by Mrs. Frank T. Murray, Mrs. Ericsson McLaughlin, Mrs. Frank Oates, Mrs. John Herrick, Mrs. Julian Smith of Wilmette, Mrs. J. G. S. Orchard and Mrs. E. O. Blomquist.

In charge of refreshments are Mrs. Joe R. Weese, chairman, Mrs. George Smith, Miss Ruth Marshall, Mrs. Thomas B. McMartin of Rogers Park, Mrs. P. T. Miller, Mrs. Harold Boyle, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. Mitten, Mrs. Norris K. Levis, Mrs. William V. Bardwell and Mrs. J. C. Elliff.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Lloyd Kingsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsley of Cumnor road, Kenilworth, who recently was injured in an automobile accident and since which he has been in the Evanston hospital, underwent a serious operation Monday of this week. Dr. Ryerson, bone specialist of Chicago, performed the operation. Lloyd is believed to be on the way to recovery. Mrs. Lloyd Crossett of Geneseo, N. Y., mother of Mrs. Kingsley, is here for an indefinite stay.

Jack Rathbone and John Robert Murray are spending the spring vacation at their homes in Kenilworth. Both boys attend Princeton university. Eugene Cheeseman is home from Brown university, also, Bruce Hulbert from the University of Michigan.

PRESENTED WITH TOKEN

Two hundred guests attended the attractive get-together given the Club Vista del Lago Tuesday evening at the Opera club. Commodore G. Stuart Blackton presented Mellen C. Martin of Winnetka a gold membership card with the club seal and his own signature as a token of the club's appreciation of the valuable services he rendered. Construction work on the club was resumed Tuesday of last week.

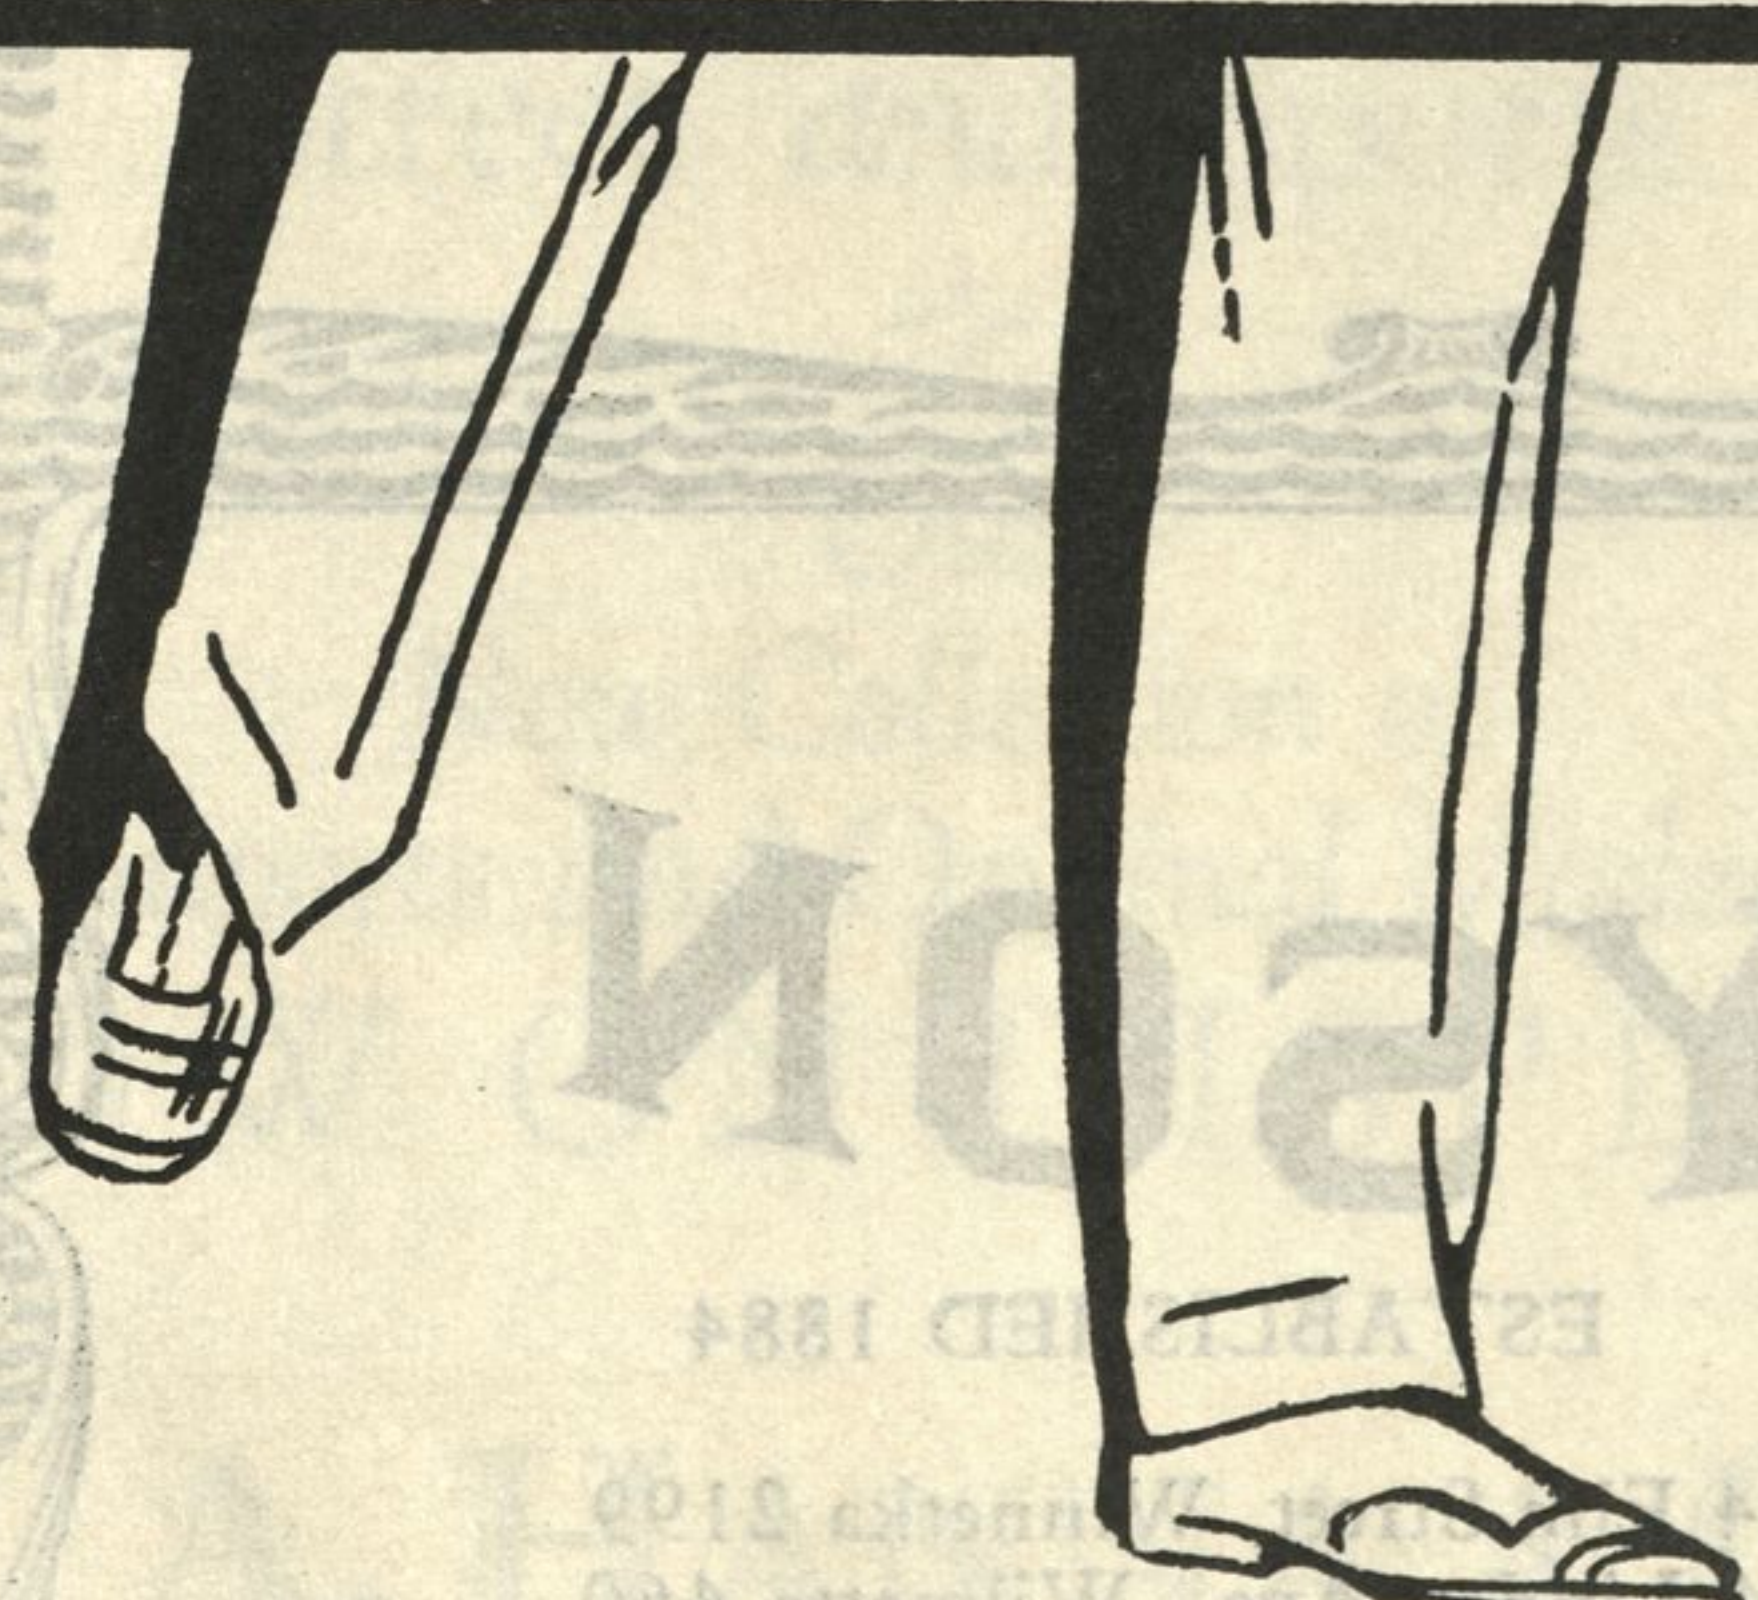

George Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Massey, 705 Sheridan road, will be the football manager of his class at Princeton this year.

A HAPPY solution to "house cleaning" and all that it symbolizes, is a few words to the Washington Laundry Man. Give him the things that make house cleaning a task . . . blankets and quilts . . . pillows . . . curtains . . . slip covers . . . rugs. He will return them clean, ready to wear or put away.
