

Judson-Rice Wedding Occasions Numerous Pre-Nuptial Affair

Many are the affairs friends of Miss Mary Jane Judson and Kingsley Loring Rice are planning to antedate their marriage on Tuesday, April 24. Some already have been marked off on their engagement calendars, but a series of parties still is to come.

Mrs. Gordon McKeldin of Evanston entertained for Miss Judson at a bridge Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles French entertained at her home in Evanston Thursday afternoon. Yesterday Mrs. William S. Morris was hostess in Miss Judson's honor and this evening Mr. and Mrs. Gordon M. Jones will entertain the members of the bridal party at a reception at their home in Evanston. Miss Lydia Atwater will give a luncheon at her home on April 17. The following day Miss Dorothy Pickard entertains the bride-elect and her attendants at a luncheon at the College club, followed by bridge.

Thursday, April 19, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edward Ingram, uncle and aunt of Miss Judson, will give a dinner for the bridal party at the Union League club and Friday Mrs. Thomas Chace will entertain at bridge at her home in Evanston. The Evanston Country club is to be the scene of a dinner dance Saturday, April 21, given by Miss Margaret Scott for members of the bridal party and Monday evening, April 23, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Judson of Evanston, father and mother of the bride-elect, will give the bridal dinner at their home following the rehearsal at the First Baptist church of Evanston. The day of the wedding Mrs. William S. Bennet will give a luncheon for Miss Judson and her bridesmaids.

Miss Elinor Woodward of Winnetka, Miss Elisabeth Rice of Wilmette, sister of the prospective bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ingram of Winnetka already have given affairs for Miss Judson and Mr. Rice during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mellor, 1179 Asbury avenue, motored to Knoxville Ill., last week to attend the confirmation services for their daughter, Mary Etheline, which were held on Easter Sunday at St. Mary's academy. Mr. and Mrs. Mellor went on to St. Louis and are expected to return some time next week.

Alpha Xi Mothers' Club Plans Its Annual Benefit

The Mothers' club of Alpha Xi Delta of Northwestern university is giving its spring bridge as a benefit for the House fund. The date of the affair is Monday, April 16, at 2 o'clock, at the sorority house on the campus. In addition to other prizes, one will be given for each table, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Norman Hall is chairman for the event. Mrs. B. T. Gibbs is president of the club and Mrs. Elliott V. Youngberg, social chairman.

Miss Polly Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Barker, 557 Orchard lane, recently returned to the University of Wisconsin after spending spring vacation with her parents. Miss Barker is a freshman at Wisconsin.

CAMP Onarga For BOYS and YOUNG MEN
Near Spooner, Wisconsin
Tutoring for Individual Boys

For catalogue write to
CAPT C. H. LUDWICK
Onarga Military School, Onarga, Illinois

Building Eskimo kayaks, row boats, and sail boats in the camp shop; cruising among the islands in Green Bay, camping and exploration trips on the mainland; building cabins, shacks and tree houses in the woods; horse back riding along the miles of forest trails; swimming and diving; nature hikes, woodcraft, camp music, and pageantry are some of the activities of this unique camp.

Adventure Island is limited to forty boys, seven to fourteen. Seventh season. Trained counsellors, one to each four boys. Nine hours' drive from Chicago.

CHARLES A. KINNEY,
Winnetka, Ill. Tel. Winnetka 914

Read the Want Ads

Thousands of Miles for Sale at 1/2 PRICE and less

YOU'LL FIND economical transportation for sale in the Classified Columns of this paper.

Look under the Used Car classification of the Want Ad pages. There you'll find dependable automobiles advertised for sale by dependable dealers.

Let this paper be your guide in finding a GOOD used car at whatever price you wish to pay.

A GOOD Used Car is waiting for you on the CLASSIFIED PAGE

GETTING A NEW SLANT ON LIFE

Not only do the classes in the EVANSTON ACADEMY of FINE ARTS carry to the student the necessary artistic principles that will equip him technically in drawing and painting, but they give to him the high ideals that must be the true artist's point of view.

Through well understood principles he learns sure methods. He becomes confident, does not hesitate to strike out and undertakes whatever problem may present itself.

He has learned to succeed and knows that if he tries he can win. The young man who drew the above picture was in High School last year.

THE EVANSTON ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS

CARL SCHEFFLER, Director

Carlson Building Tower, Church and Orrington
Telephone Greenleaf 1674