Catholic Club Has Two April Events

Presentation of Living Pictures and Fine Arts Program Announced This Week

The Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette gives two events of particular interest the second and third weeks of April.

The first of these is a presentation of living pictures which is to be open to club members and their friends for a nominal admission fee. Concerning these living pictures the following announcement is given:

Mrs. Louis Crush is chairman of the committee which will present a group of living pictures at the Wilmette Woman's club, Friday evening, April 20, at 8 o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Crush on her committee are Mrs. Frank Oelerich, Mrs. F. X. Thale, Mrs. Arthur Adams, Mrs. August Meyer, Mrs. William Otter, and Mrs. Harry Klein. There will be five groups of five pictures each, representing famous paintings and statuary. These will be posed by club members and their children. Between the groups musical numbers and readings will be given.

"Friday the Thirteenth" causes no uneasiness for the fine arts department of the Woman's Catholic club, for it offered one of its delightful programs yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Thale, chairman of the department, was the hostess for this, the final meeting of the department for the club year, at 2 o'clock, in the Wilmette Woman's club. Mrs. Arthur Adams, Mrs. Michael Morris, and Mrs. Marshall Kearney were the assisting hostesses.

Mrs. B. M. Lupton gave a review of Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn." Under the direction of Mrs. Marshall Kearney, an old-fashioned one-act play was presented by the club members with Mrs. Frank Daegling, Mrs. William FitzPatrick, Mrs. Roy Hackett, Mrs. Arthur McMillan, Mrs. Forest Miller, Mrs. James Tarleton, Mrs. George Schilbach, Mrs. Clifton Walker and Elsbell FitzPatrick taking the parts. Mrs. Charles Broad concluded the program with a group of southern songs and negro melodies.

Glencoe D. A. R. Is to Mark Indian Trail Tree

The next meeting of the Glencoe chapter, D. A. R., will be on Monday, April 16, at 2:30 o'clock, on the lawn of Mrs. C. P. Burgess' home, 344 South avenue, Glencoe, where an Indian Trail tree will receive a bronze marker recording the significance of the old Indian trails. The speaker of the day is Mrs. Anna Wilmarth Ickes, who is an expert in Indian folklore. The public, especially the young public, the Scouts, the Indian bands, and Camp Fire girls, will be very welcome. The day is in charge of Mrs. John C. Hornung, chairman of the historic landmarks committee.

The patriotic education committee, of which Mrs. Francis Graham is chairman, recently has placed framed patriotic mottos and pictures in the Glencoe Public school and in the City hall.

TO BE LAW CLASS HOSTESS

Mrs. F. T. O'Brien of 735 Foxdale avenue will be hostess to the meeting next Wednesday of the Catholic Woman's league Parliamentary Law class, conducted by Mrs. Maurice Lieber.

Catholic Woman's League Elects Its New Officers

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league had its annual meeting and election of officers on Tuesday at the Winnetka Woman's club. The reports of all officers and committee chairmen were read, and the following officers were chosen: Mrs. N. P. Andersen of Evanston, second vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Cormack of Glencoe, third vice-president; Mrs. R. V. O'Brien of Winnetka, recording secretary; Mrs. Chester Cleveland of Winnetka, financial secretary; and directors: Mrs. James McMillan of Glencoe, Mrs. P. M. Prato of Highland Park, Mrs. William J. Kerr of Winnetka, and Mrs. F. T. O'Brien of Winnetka.

The league decided to have a reception some time in May for the members who joined this year. The annual luncheon will be held at the new Columbia Country club, and will be a bridge luncheon, instead of the usual lecture. This will be on Tuesday, June 5.

Circle Meetings

The next regular meeting of the Lincoln circle will be held on Monday, April 23, at the residence of Mrs. David Bluford, 777 Prospect avenue. Mrs. Ella E. Boardman will assist her daughter in caring for the members and their guests, who will meet at 10:30 to sew for charity. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, after which will be held the annual meeting and election of officers for the ensuing year. All are urged to attend.

The members of the Cherry Street circle are invited to an all-day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Cadenhead, 414 Provident avenue, at 10 Tuesday morning, April 17. Mrs. Cadenhead, assisted by Mrs. William Roth and Mrs. Arthur Laser, will serve luncheon to the members.

The Skokie circle will give a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Raible, 1447 Tower road, on Monday, April 16, at 1 o'clock. This will take the place of the regular meeting, and is given to secure funds for the Ridge Farm Preventorium for Girls.

The Willow Road circle held its monthly meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ira J. Wilson, 325 Ridge road. Mrs. Charles L. Patterson and Mrs. Arthur R. Dean assisted Mrs. Wilson. The afternoon was devoted to sewing for charity.

The Ash Street circle will meet Tuesday, April 17, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles Kreger, 516 Meadow road, for an all-day sewing session. Luncheon will be served by the hostess.

The Foxdale Avenue circle will meet Monday, April 16, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. O. H. Miller, 861 Foxdale avenue.

Camp Benefit Takes Place

Last Wednesday afternoon the annual benefit bridge held for the purpose of making money for Indian Hill camp took place at the Winnetka Woman's club. Preceding the bridge, Mrs. Cecil Barnes gave an excellent reading at the home of Mrs. Ayres Boal, 701 Sheridan road, for those not wishing to play cards. Each year this entertainment is given, the proceeds of which go toward this camp for Winnetka boys and girls. In this way these young people have to pay only a small sum for a splendid summer's outing.

Music Club Meets to Hear Selections of Modern Jazz

The Winnetka Music club departed from its usual programs Monday and gave a program entirely of jazz. First came two phonograph records, "Sunrise" and "The Dancing Tambourine." Then Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey sang a group of three songs by John Alden Carpenter. The songs were "Those Cryin' Blues," "Jazz Boys," and "That Soothin' Song." Mrs. William D. McAdams played for her.

Mrs. Floy Bartlett and Mrs. Valona Brewer played together a jazz composition written by Mrs. Bartlett. Two more records, "Meditation" and "When Day Is Done," followed.

Three jazz songs were sung by Mrs. Bailey, with Mrs. Bartlett playing the piano part and Mrs. McAdams at the piano. Their songs were "The Man I Love," "Diane," and "My Ohio Home."

The meeting ended with the playing by Miss Hubsch of New Trier High school, of several jazz selections.

Annual Woman's Club Luncheon Next Tuesday

(Contributed)

The annual luncheon of the Winnetka Woman's club will take place on Tuesday, April 17, at 1 o'clock. This is always an enjoyable occasion. The reports and election of officers are so cleverly and expeditiously handled that one is never bored.

The entertainment following the luncheon promises to be delightful. The farce, "A Freudian Feud," is particularly timely after the club's psychology orgy, and is said to be, in vulgar parlance, a scream.

As for the program of music, the names of Mrs. Dennis Grant and Mrs. Gilbert Smith are complete guarantee of a delightful program. They are too well known, through their charming appearances with the North Shore Theater guild, and elsewhere, to need further comment.

Members should bear in mind that today, April 14, is the last date to make reservations.

North Shore Wellesley Circle to Give Bridge

The North Shore Wellesley circle is to make a departure from its usual form of meeting and make the occasion of Tuesday, April 17, a bridge party to be given at 2 o'clock, at the homes of Mrs. Hubert E. Howard, 643 Walden road, Winnetka, and Miss Helen Bruch, 1815 Chicago avenue, Evanston. Mrs. Henry K. Urion and Mrs. Eugene Howard of Winnetka and Mrs. Howell Murray of Highland Park will be co-hostesses with Mrs. Howard.

The purpose of the affair is to raise money with which to add to the decoration of the Green room in Alumnae hall at Wellesley. Members may invite guests.

The hostesses will serve tea in the delightful way they do at the regular meetings.

TO HAVE EXTRA MEETING

The Winnetka Garden club will have an extra meeting next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. C. Colton Daughaday, 180 Chestnut street. The next regular will be held some time during the following week.

The Georgian hotel is giving the next of its Sunday evening musicales, April 15, at 8 o'clock. The artists for the program of an hour's duration will be Mrs. Malcolm MacHarg, violinist, and Mrs. Harold E. Knapp, harpist.

Dr. Ernest Guthrie to Address Society

Head of Missionary Extension Society to Tell of Scope of Work in City

Dr. Ernest Graham Guthrie of Chicago will give an address on "Grappling with Life in the Great City" at the meeting of the Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church Wednesday, April 18, at Community House. Dr. Guthrie is general director of the Chicago Congregational Missionary Extension society, an organization which recently received nearly $4,000,000 through the generosity of the late Victor Lawson, and which is doing probably, the most noted piece of work of any other organization of the same kind in the country. The way in which this money is spent, for the most part among the under privileged of Chicago, and the scope of the notable work of the society, is what Dr. Guthrie will dwell upon in his talk to members of the Woman's society.

Dr. Guthrie is a native of New Zealand, has held notable pastorates in the East, particularly one of twelve years at Union church, Boston, and during the World war, was head of the personnel of the American Field service of three thousand college students who served with the French army before the United States declared war. He is a personal friend of the Rev. James Austin Richards, who informs the members of the society that this address promises to be most interesting. They are urged to turn out in large numbers for this meeting as it is the last one before the annual election.

Dr. Guthrie's talk will follow the luncheon, which will be preceded by sewing at 10 and devotionals at 12. It is hoped that there will be many workers for the sewing, as a great deal is left to be done.

During the sewing period Mrs. Taliaferro Milton will give a reading. Mrs. Milton has frequently given her talent to the society and the readings always are appreciated. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson will lead the devotionals. Mrs. G. V. Nevius and Mrs. J. C. Risk, hostesses of the day, will have charge of the luncheon at 12:15.

To Open Home for Benefit

Mrs. H. B. Bezazian will open her beautiful home at 6317 Sheridan road, Chicago, Saturday, April 21, at 2 o'clock, for a card party given for the North End branch, Friends of the Chicago Junior school. The proceeds are to go toward the maintenance fund for the school for underprivileged boys which is situated near Elgin.

Last Welfare Luncheon

The last luncheon meeting of the Winnetka branch of the Infant Welfare society comes Monday, at the home of Mrs. John Miller, 700 Rosewood avenue. A large attendance is expected at the meeting. The results of the campaign will be read at this time.

TO HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

The North End branch, Friends of Chicago Junior school, will hold its regular monthly meeting, Tuesday evening, April 17, at 8:30, at the Sovereign hotel. An interesting program is to be given by Duval, who is direct from the Orpheum circuit, in magic "As You Like It."
