Many Young People Return to Winnetka for Holidays

Many young people of Winnetka and the north shore have been enjoying the past two weeks at home, returning from all parts of the country for the spring vacation. Among those are Robert English, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. English, 375 Hawthorn lane, who came home from Princeton, and Frank Stover, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Stover, 1183 Tower road, also home from Princeton. Stanton Fetcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fetcher, 1122 Bryant avenue, is home from Harvard. George Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Massey, 705 Sheridan road, is home from Princeton. John Olmstead returned from Williams, and Revell Chapman from Harvard. Miss Ethel Hale came home from Elmira college. Miss Jean Markley, who is attending Wellesley, spent her spring vacation in Bermuda.

31 Scouts Attend Spring Camp at the Cabin in the Woods

Thirty-one Scouts and Scoutmasters of Wilmette, Kenilworth and Glencoe returned last Saturday following a week of fun and work in the Spring Camp, held throughout the Easter vacation at the Cabin in the Woods in the Forest Preserve west of Glencoe.

The camp, it is reported by the boys, was a "glorious success." The 31 Scouts were divided into four patrols and an organized program was followed each day. The inter-patrol contest, won by the Hoot Owl patrol, was one of the big features of the outing. Although it rained—to be exact—two and one-third days out of the four days spent in camp, the showers failed to dampen the Scouts' enthusiasm and not one word of complaint was heard at any time.

Scout Executive Walter McPeck reports that the boys "really placed the 'co' in co-operate" by working in complete harmony with their Junior Officers and Camp directors despite the bad weather. A purple leather necktie was given each "honor camper," an award that won great favor with the boys.

The four patrols were as follows: Hoot Owl patrol—Bruce Kenyon, 4, patrol leader; Craig Stoddard, 4, assistant patrol leader; Mark Stoddard, 4; Jack Sinding, 13; James Laing, 13; and Bob Fletcher, 2; Raven patrol—Jack DeBeers, 22, patrol leader; Paul Sterner, 4, assistant patrol leader; Walter Hughes, Walter Roberts, Cameron Brown, Harry Keator, and Burton French, all of Troop 22 of Glencoe; Cuckoo patrol—Bob King, 2, patrol leader; Philip Brooks, assistant patrol leader; Harry Shank, Bud Howard, Bill Youngquist, Davis Lott, and Gordon Cutler, all of Troop 2 of Wilmette; Bob White patrol—John Betak, 22, patrol leader; Kermit Simon, 6, assistant patrol leader; Tom Temple, 1; Billy Klein, 3; Jack English, 2; Allan Rossman, 2; and David Henderson, 4.

George Bersch of Troop 4, Wilmette, served as Senior Patrol Leader and supervised the eats. Sidney Davis, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 10, assisted the camp directors in the direction of the program. Gordon Cutler served as Scribe.

Kenilworth Boys Motor Away During Vacation

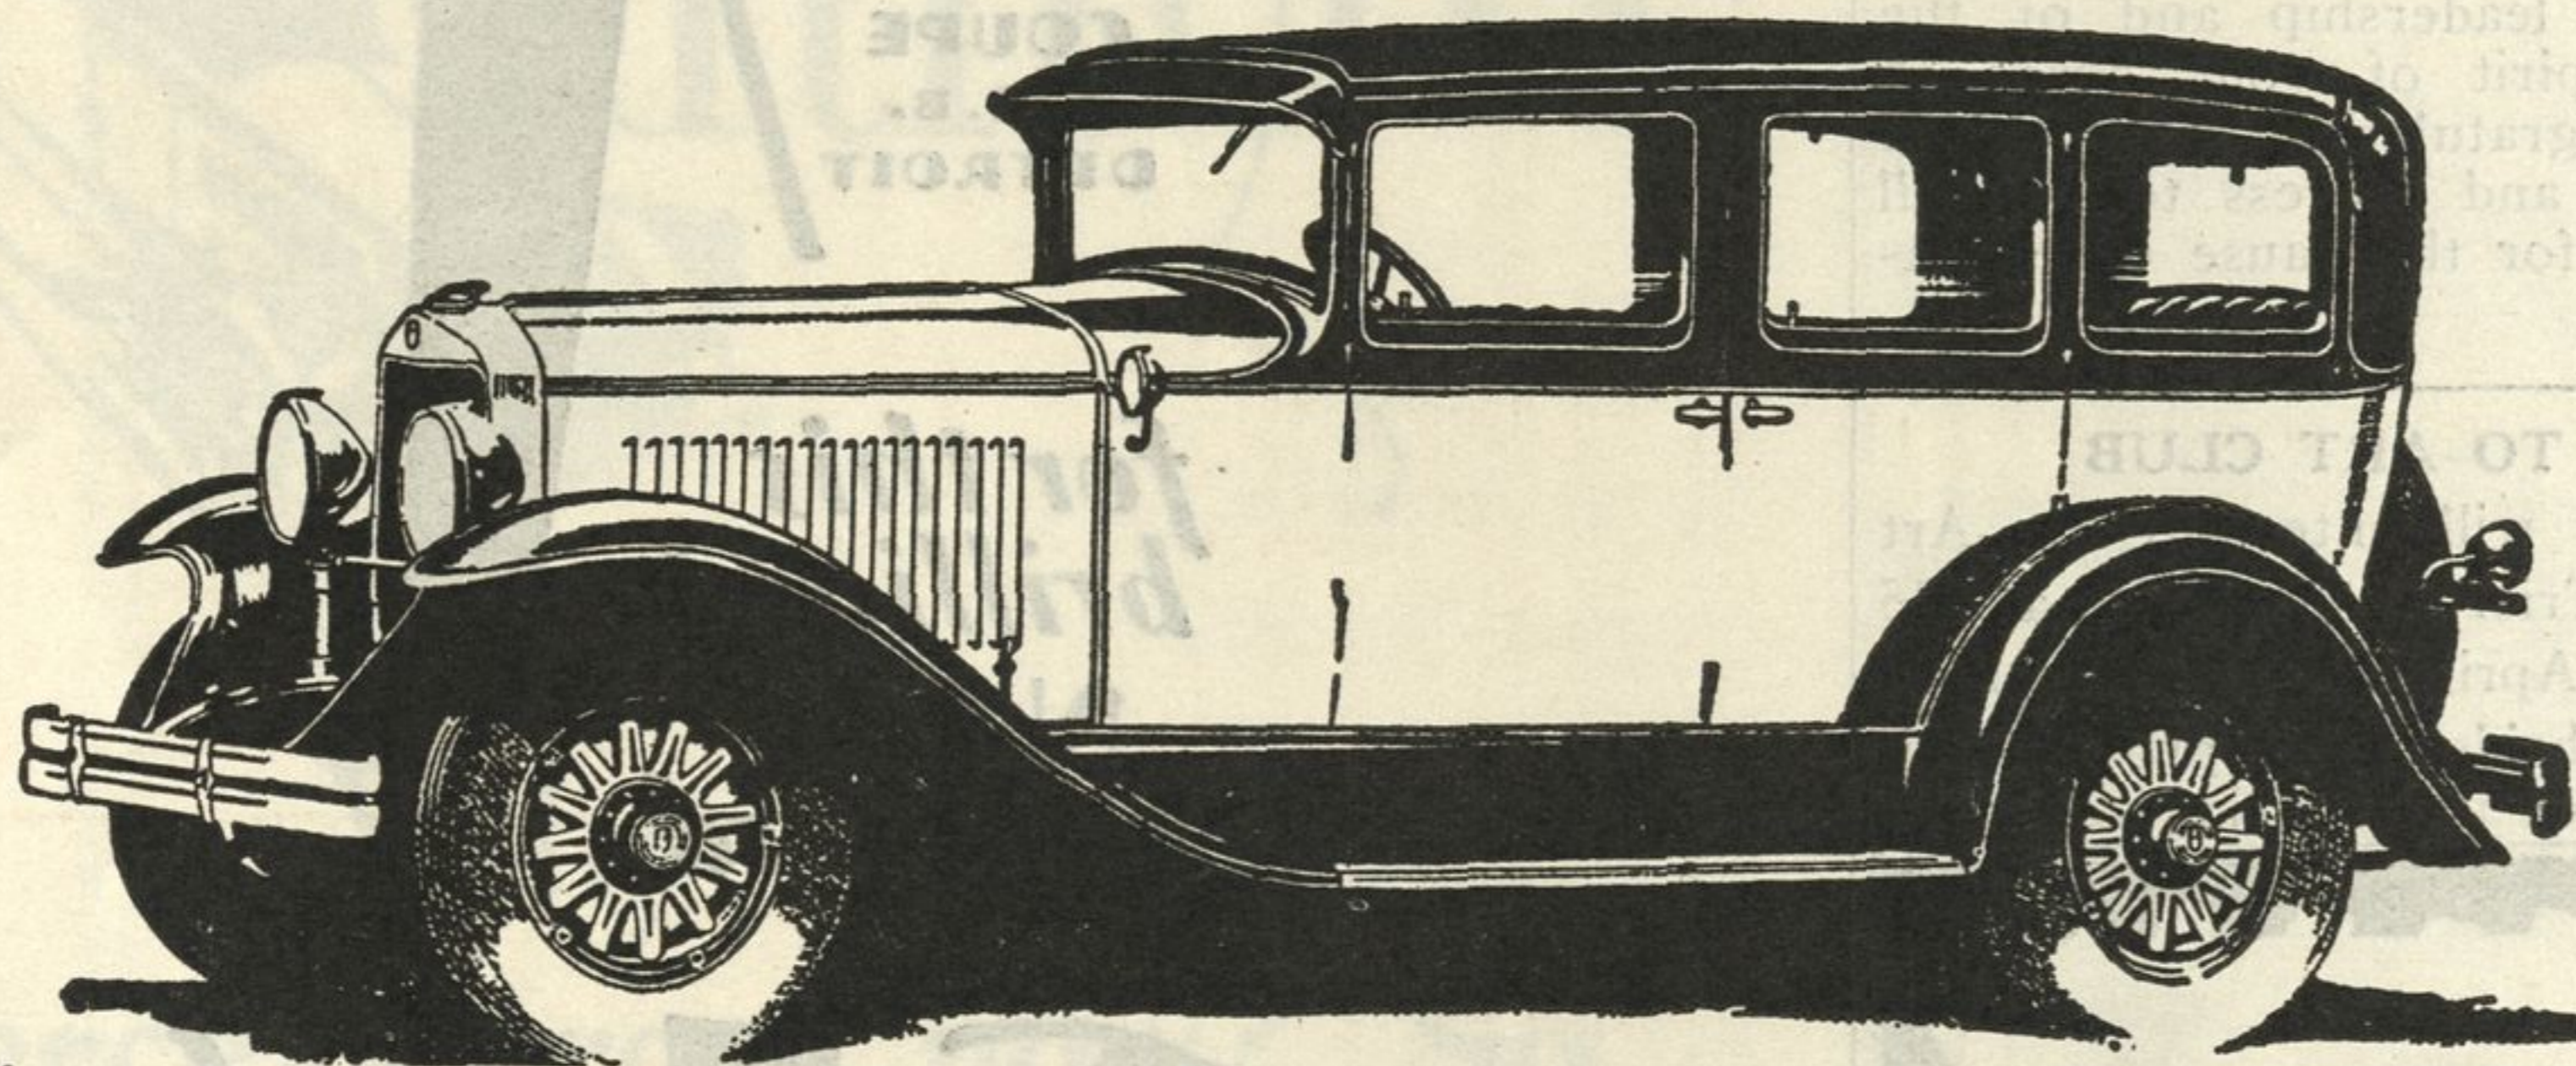

There was quite an exodus among the high school boys of Kenilworth this spring vacation and the wanderlust was in the air. Among those fortunate enough to have cars at their disposal and the consent of their parents to satisfy this hunger for adventure were Bentley McCloud, George Kingsley and Hinman Bisbee. These boys headed south with the Mamouth Cave as their objective and they amazed their families by arriving at Louisville about 4 o'clock of the day on which they started. On their trip they not only visited the great cave but saw races at Louisville, visited Lexington, Ky., and did numerous other things.

Others who took trips included Tom Hicks, "Butch" Keith, and Bill Reed, who motored in the Hicks' car to Champaign to visit the University of Illinois, to Lafayette to see Purdue university, and then drove on to Ohio.

Ralph Johansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johansen, 158 Bertling lane, returned home from the University of Illinois, where he is a freshman, for the spring vacation. He came home last week, and returned to Champaign Tuesday.

Mrs. William Modes, 915 Oak street, entertained a number of friends at luncheon and bridge April 12.
