

ROBBER TRIO MEETS UP WITH OUR CHIEF

Result: Chicago Bad Boys Are Now Repining in Dismal County Jail Cells

The one hundred percent working efficiency of the Winnetka Police department was again manifest Wednesday evening when, within an hour after Al Ottone, a former Winnetka police officer, had shot it out with three stick-up men who attempted to rob his place of business, the Skokie Inn, Chief of Police W. M. Peterson had the trio safely behind the bars.

The following morning, at a preliminary hearing before Justice R. E. Sinsheimer, the three Chicagoans, Albert Metz, of 3506 Potomac avenue; Herman Langhaus, 918 Nelson street, and Bruno Opst, 4115 Kenneth avenue, were bound over to the grand jury, and the bond of each placed at $25,000.

Thus, within the past two weeks, six Chicago crooks who have sought new pastures in Winnetka without taking into account the police efficiency which the village boasts, are awaiting grand jury action under bonds totaling $155,000.

Ottone Quick on Draw

The Skokie Inn is located in Northfield, west of Winnetka on Willow road. The three men entered Ottone's place, where Ottone, himself quick on the draw, answered their demand to "stick 'em up," with three shots from his six shooter, the while they sent four after their intended victim.

None of the shots took effect, and the men ran out. Ottone telephoned the Winnetka police and Chief Peterson encountered two of them between Ottone's place and Hibbard road, and the third culprit was landed a little later.

Last Saturday morning when Dave Carston, Arthur Wurster and Wayne McCrary, the latter a former butler in the Henry C. Bartholomay home at 620 Spruce street, Winnetka, were arraigned before Police Magistrate Clark T. Northrup, charged with the sensational hold-up of the Bartholomay's Monday night of last week, the three men were held to the grand jury, Carston and Wurster, each in bonds of $15,000, and McCrary, $20,000.

Get a License or Draw a Summons, Chief Says

The members of the Winnetka Police department have received orders from Chief W. M. Peterson to issue a court summons for all drivers and operators of cars who have not obtained their 1928 state and village vehicle license. This also applies to delinquent chauffeurs, too, it is said, so beware.

FIND ANY KEYS?

It is reported that a bunch of keys was lost in Community House and as a search of the building has failed to disclose any trace of them it was considered possible that someone may have picked them up. The finder is asked to return them to Community House and receive the reward offered for their recovery.

Webb School of Dancing to Give Benefit Program

The Webb School of Dancing will present a "Dancing Entertainment" for the benefit of Community House in Matz hall, Community House, on the evening of April 30 at 8 o'clock. Tickets may be procured at the office.

The Dancing Times, a publication of London, England, says of the Webb school: "There is always something remarkably refreshing about the entertainment provided by this school. Each item is something more than a mere exhibition of some form of dancing."

"The program is full of pretty conceits, generally with a spirit of roguish mischief predominating. One could well imagine that Fred and Adele Astaire had graduated in some such school as this on the other side of the Atlantic."

The entire program followed in the school is the original work of Mrs. Florence Webb, barring the authentic national dances, such as the Spanish dances, the Hornpipe and the Court dance of Henry VIII.

Petition for Rezoning Referred to Committee

William P. Scully has petitioned the Winnetka Village council to rezone a 50-foot lot at the Northeast corner of Chatfield and Locust roads from "A" residential to "B" commercial. The matter came before the council at its adjourned meeting last Friday evening at which time it was referred to the committee of that body on Plats and Zoning, of which Trustee Doris D. Benson is chairman. A similar petition, it is said, was denied about a year ago.

Asks Council to Rezone Lot for Business Purposes

Ayres Boal, owner of lot 16 of McGuire and Orr's Arbor Vitae road subdivision at the northwest corner of Elm street and Arbor Vitae road, has asked that the tract be rezoned from "A" residential to "C" commercial.

The matter is now in the hands of the Zoning commission before which body it is said a public hearing will probably be held before the commission makes its recommendation to the village council.

A petition for the change was received by the council at its adjourned session Friday evening of last week, at which time it was referred to the Zoning commission, in accordance with the usual procedure in such matters.

The tract involved is located in the business district of the village, being situated on Elm street between the Eckart hardware store on the west and Arbor Vitae road on the east.

Select Judges to Choose Winners in Lens Contest

More than 100 photographs, taken by students at New Trier High school, have been entered in the photographic contest conducted by the Lens club of the school under the supervision of H. H. Herron of the New Trier faculty. Snaps of all types, from ordinary snaps to the most difficult of night time-exposures, are entered.

Judges for the contest have been chosen and will meet at the school next Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting the winners. The judges are as follows: B. E. Christensen of Hattstrom and Sanders of Evanston; H. A. Armstrong of Lloyd Hollister, Inc., and Miss Katherine Murphy of the New Trier faculty.
