Three Policemen Ill;
One Case Diagnosed
as Genuine "Fanitis"

The Fates that played into the hands of the Cubs and aided them to win their game 13 to 0 from the Cincinnati Reds Thursday, dealt a less favored hand to Officer Charles M. Bemus of the Winnetka Police department.

Thursday was Sparkey's day off. He had been looking forward to its coming ever since the schedule of his favorite ball club was announced, for was he not to have the opportunity that every Cub fan desires—just to see 'em play?

Then on Tuesday the "breaks" started. Sergeant Harry Enault had to go home, ill of the "flu."

Officer John H. Luensman was assigned to the desk the following day, and then he too, "got the grip."

On Thursday morning Officer Bemus found himself, not enjoying his "day off" and at the Cubs' ball park as he had planned, but pressed into service doing relief duty on the desk.

And thus it was, the third member of the Winnetka Police force was reported sick—not serious, just downright disappointed, that was all.

ORDERS SIGNS REMOVED

A resolution was passed by the Kenilworth Village board at its meeting on Thursday of last week providing for the sending of notices to all owners of bill-boards of more than 12 square feet in area within the Village limits that unless the boards had been removed within ten days they would be taken down by the Village.

The Tri-Delt sorority of Northwestern university entertained at a benefit bridge party at the sorority house last Saturday afternoon.

START DRIVE SUNDAY

Organize Church Field Day and Mail Campaign for Winnetka in Interest of Near East Relief

A church field day and a mail campaign designed to reach every family in Winnetka has been arranged by a local committee to benefit the orphans under the care of Near East Relief. This Sunday has been selected as the date and the letters signed by a committee of well-known Winnetka persons will be mailed at the same time. George M. Reynolds, state treasurer of Near East Relief, will act as local treasurer in the Winnetka campaign and contributions may be sent direct to him.

The committee members who will sign the letter of appeal are: Dr. James Austin Richards, pastor Congregational church, the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, rector of Christ church, Carleton W. Washburne, superintendent public schools, Vic J. Killian, president Rotary club, William B. McIlvaine, Harry N. Gottlieb, William C. Boyden, and John W. Scott, Sheridan road, Glencoe.

The Sunday speakers will be C. F. Jackman, regional director of Near East Relief, at the Winnetka Congregational church, who will speak for ten minutes at the morning service, and Joseph Koshaba, who will speak for fifteen minutes at Christ Church, Sheridan road and Humboldt avenue.

Mr. Jackman is in charge of Near East Relief work in thirteen states of the Middle West and is well informed on the Near Eastern countries and the whole plan of reconstruction being carried forward by this American organization.

Miss Jane Ashman, formerly of Winnetka and now of Deerfield, spent the week-end in Winnetka visiting some of her Winnetka friends.
