

Miss Priscilla Jones of 821 Michigan avenue, Evanston, gave a tea last Sunday afternoon at her home, the occasion being her birthday. Fourteen guests were present. Miss Jones formerly lived at 1336 Central avenue in Wilmette.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

Call Highland Park 686 and our Estimator will call at your convenience.

FULSANG & ROTH

Res. Phone 3397

Edna May Cummings Back at Work Directing Plays

Edna May Cummings of 1332 Forest avenue, Wilmette, has resumed her duties at the Philomathia club in Chicago. Mrs. Cummings suffered an attack of pneumonia last December but after a long rest has now gained strength enough to permit resumption of her work.

The play "His First Wife's Wedding Ring," which was postponed because of Mrs. Cummings' illness, is to be given by the Philomathia players May 15. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Cummings or at the club house in Chicago, it is announced.

The Philomathia club now boasts a membership roll of 383, eighty-one of whom are north shore girls and mothers. Proceeds from Mrs. Cummings' last play, "Cheap Aristocracy," were used to install a day nursery and recreation room for the children in the neighborhood of the club house.

Norman Marchand, former dancing partner of Mrs. Cummings' arrives this week to assist with rehearsals for the new play.

Sir Harry II

In this Sir Harry Lauder outfit is James Gunn who will appear in the Troubadour Glee club concert and dance at the Woman's club of Evanston Friday, May 4. "Jimmie," as they call him, is a personal friend of Sir Harry, who was so pleased with the interpretations of his songs that he gave Mr. Gunn his permission and endorsement to sing any of them.

In Omaha, where Jimmie was discovered, they call him "Harry Lauder the Second." He has a baritone voice not unlike that of the famous comedian and a supplementing sense of humor.

Four Hundred Guests at School of Speech Prom

Four hundred young people attended the Northwestern university school of speech prom at the Evanston Woman's club last Friday evening. The hall was very attractive with a great many vari-colored lights playing on the arched dome. The prom was led by Naomi Merlien and Katherine Hicks, whose partners were, respectively, Theodore Ross and Robert Howlett. The Cope Harvey orchestra from the Stevens hotel furnished the music. The chaperons for the evening were Dean and Mrs. Ralph Dennis, Dean and Mrs. James Armstrong, Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Hardy, Prof. and Mrs. Lew Sarret, Prof. and Mrs. K. L. Lardner, and Prof. and Mrs. L. G. Kranz.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bagby of the Linden Crest apartments left last Saturday for Europe, where they will spend about two months returning in time to attend the graduation of their daughter, Anne, from New Trier High school.

Mrs. Herbert Weld, 315 Sunset road, Winnetka, has returned to her home after an extended visit with her sister at Fort Pierce, Fla.

CONTINUING OUR 20th ANNIVERSARY RUG SALE

Our 20th Anniversary Sale continues to attract the wise and thrifty rug buyers. This is a real opportunity to secure the finest in oriental and domestic rugs at substantial savings. It's a genuine mark down of our regular stock including, Sarouks, Lilihans, Araks, Mahals, Sisvans, Chinese Mandarins, Servians, Royal Wiltons, Imperial Wiltons, Domestic Wiltons, Seamless Bagdads, Hooked Rugs, Anatolian Mats, etc. An opportunity to save 25% to 33 1/3% and secure the best and choicest rugs that money can buy.

This sale continues only for a limited time. Come in before it's too late. Choose your rug and pay for it on our Budget Plan.

YOUR RUGS and CARPETS Will Appreciate Our CLEANING SERVICE

Here's cleaning service worthy of your rugs—cleaning that eliminates all of the nap-cutting grime—cleaning that puts new life into every fibre—cleaning that awakens the original lustre and color. Just ask your own eyes.

Phone for our man to call and we'll do the rest.

Mestjian Brothers, Inc.

511 MAIN STREET — WILMETTE
Wilmette 1949 University 5050
Open Evenings

