

Baird and Warner Announce Numerous Real Estate Deals

The Evanston office of Baird & Warner, Inc., wish to announce the following sales:

R. M. Ostermann, vice-president and general manager of the Super Heater company, has exchanged his residence at 1045 Ridge avenue, Evanston, on a six-apartment building located at 629-31 Sheridan road, Chicago. The owner of the six apartment, J. Edward Liess, president of the Reliance Protective Appliance company, Chicago, will occupy Mr. Ostermann's former Evanston residence as his future home. Mr. Ostermann's attorneys were Wisner & Walsh; Mr. Liess' attorney was Mr. Mesirow of Mesirow and Birger. Mr. Ostermann was represented by S. B. Matthews of Baird & Warner, Inc., as broker and Mr. Liess by A. E. Greenlee of E. A. Hastings & company. The price was not disclosed, but it is understood the property approximated $135,000.

Silence D. Knapp has sold to Thomas P. Dowdle of Dowdle Brothers, contractors, the vacant property located at the southwest corner of Raleigh and Woodstock, Kenilworth. Mr. Dowdle is to build a beautiful home for his own use. The lot is 120 x 175. H. L. McDaniel of Baird & Warner, Inc., represented Mr. Knapp in this transaction.

Alvin P. Bradley has sold to Clarence O. Pauley, secretary of the Great Northern Life Insurance company, the 8-room brick house located at 2329 Lincolnwood drive, Evanston. The lot is 80 x 150. Mr. A. C. Frost represented both parties.

William Fullagar of Crain company has purchased of Edward G. Petry of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, the brick residence at 2320 Isabella street, Evanston. Mrs. Mulford represented both parties in this sale.

Charles Stringer of 2921 Pine Grove avenue, Chicago, of Stringer Brothers Plumbing Supplies, has purchased of Mrs. Mabel Bellows the ten-room brick residence at 1013 Ridge avenue, Evanston, at a price of $45,000. Mr. Stringer is remodeling his new home and intends moving in about May 1. The property has a frontage on the Ridge of 123 feet. C. W. Martin acted as broker for both parties.

Milton Emerich, formerly of Wilmette, has been elected president of the sophomore class at Dartmouth.

Four States Represented on N. U. Baseball Team

Four states are represented on Northwestern university's baseball team which opened its conference season this week. Members of the team hail from Illinois, Michigan, Iowa and West Virginia. Six of the players are from Chicago. They are, Capt. Luke Johnsos, short; Seymour Holleb, first; Howard Prange, second and Al Izard, third. Incidentally the entire infield are Chicago high school products. The other Chicago boys are Bill Palmer, pitcher, and John Jacobs, outfielder.
