Teatro del Lago Helps Scout Troop Raise Fund

Announcement is made by L. C. Simmel, Scout Master of Troop No. 12, Wilmette, and Vista del Lago "Cub" troop, that Samuel Meyers, manager of Teatro del Lago, has presented to the troops 2,500 tickets to sell, the proceeds from which are to go into the troop treasury.

"Mr. Meyers has been a loyal and untiring worker for the two troops from the time of their inception," according to Mr. Simmel, "and this added gesture gives one an idea of the magnanimous manner in which he does things for this fine organization of north shore boys. Within the short time since Mr. Meyers presented the tickets to the troop, over $300 has been turned into the troop treasury."

Pays Peak Price for Residence in Evanston

The highest price ever paid for an Evanston residence appears in the sale to Albert W. Clutter at a reported $200,000 of the Egbert H. Gold property at 1201 Sheridan Road, Evanston. This property is improved with a fourteen room residence occupying the full block on Hamilton street between Sheridan road and Lake Shore drive. The seller is the president of the Vapor Car Heating company and the purchaser is a Chicago capitalist and one of the founders of the Club Aluminum company. Thomas S. Hodgson of Hokanson and Jenks, Inc., was the broker.

Congregation Israel Men to Hear Dr. M. Fishbein

An Organization dinner of the Men's club of the North Shore Congregation Israel, will be held in the assembly of the Temple at Glencoe, Thursday evening, April 26. Dinner will be served promptly at 7 o'clock.

The speaker of the evening will be Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical association, eminent author, philosopher and humorist. His topic will be "The Comical Quacks." There will be other appropriate entertainment features.

A short business meeting will be held for the adoption of a constitution, and election of directors.

The Men's club will be primarily a Dinner club. Speakers of recognized ability and national reputation will be invited to address these meetings on topical subjects.

WINS POETRY PRIZE

Mildred Bowers, an alumna of New Trier, has been awarded the first place in the poetry contest sponsored by Yale university. Her little column is called "A Twist of Smoke" and is dedicated to Keith Preston who printed much of her poetry in the "Hit or Miss" column of the Chicago Daily News.
