They Need Your Help

The drive for funds for Near East Relief will begin in Winnetka tomorrow when speakers will appear before congregations of various local churches and will talk briefly on the need for financial assistance in caring for the orphans in Greece, Armenia, Syria and Persia. A mail campaign will be launched simultaneously. Contributions should be sent to George M. Reynolds who will act as local treasurer in the campaign.

Joseph Koshaba, a native Persian, will speak at Christ church at the morning service. He is a graduate of an American college and has personally witnessed several massacres and will discuss the situation there from a "first hand" viewpoint.

C. F. Jackman, regional chairman of Near East Relief, will be the speaker at the Winnetka Congregational church.
