

Lee Says:

THERE are 51,999 drug stores IN the United States besides OURS. Our friends then are MORE than safe in saying THAT we are one store in A thousand.

THIS IS HOW we came to open the National Market: We figured that we "knew our stuff" about quality meats—and it seemed there must be a lot of folks in Winnetka and hereabouts who would appreciate the benefit of what we could do for them. We were right!

JOSEPH H. TARRANT, Proprietor

Plenty of people would be willing to pay double for National Quality—if it were necessary. But it isn't!

Glencoe Pianist Wins Musicians' Society Contest

Miss Pauline Manchester of Glencoe, a pupil of Howard Welles, was the winner in the final contest under the auspices of the Society of American Musicians in co-operation with the Cable Piano company, which was held in Fullerton hall at the Chicago Art Institute on Wednesday evening, April 19. There were thirty-two entrants in the contest and elimination contests had been held two weeks previous to the final contest.

The prize is two-fold. The Cable people awarded her a Mason and Hamlin grand piano and the Society of American Musicians will sponsor a debut recital for her in Chicago in about three weeks.

Miss Manchester is a Kappa Delta at Northwestern but finds time to take charge of the singing and rhythm classes in the Montessori school in Winnetka. Her private piano class includes pupils from Evanston to Glencoe.

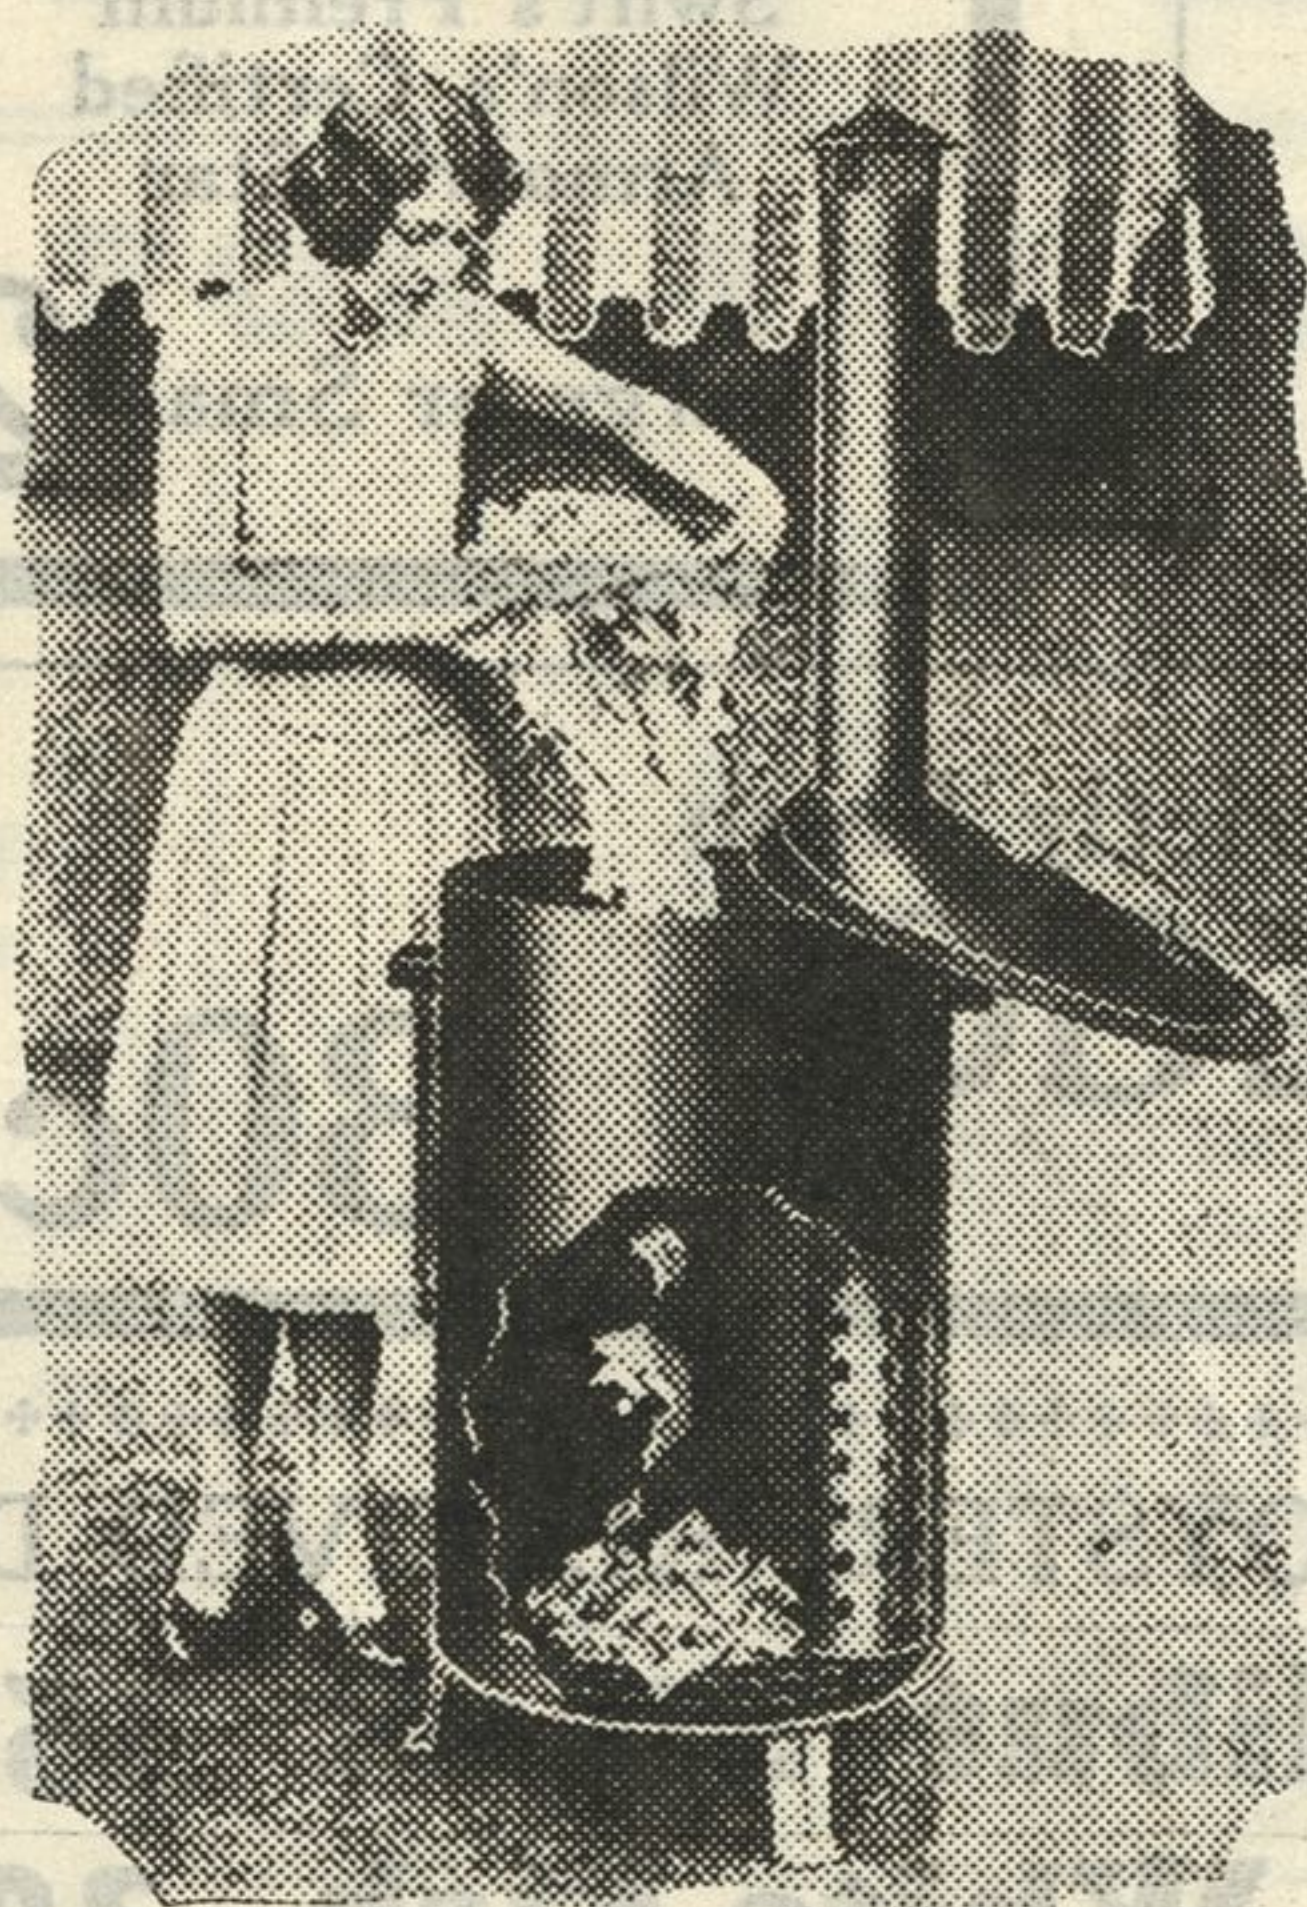

21 Brothers & Sisters at Home, But Not Norbertena

John Snelton, residing on Waukegan road near Willow road, reported to Winnetka police Wednesday evening that he feared his ten-year-old daughter, Norbertena, had been kidnaped, but she was located a few hours later in Kenilworth.

Soon after leaving school she had been seen to enter an automobile, east bound, on Willow road. She said she reached that village by begging auto rides.

Snelton told the police he has 22 children and eight grandchildren.

Sergeant J. G. Boyd asked how many great grandchildren, to which Snelton replied: "None; why, I am only 57 years old."
