Commerce Students Have Awards for Proficiency

The Board of Education of New Trier High school has recently accepted the offer of the Wilmette State bank of three prizes to be awarded each year for the purpose of encouraging proficiency in business subjects at New Trier.

The awards—in gold—will be presented each year to the senior students of the Commerce department of New Trier who rank the highest in scholarship and in other qualities desirable among young men and women, particularly in the field of banking. To be eligible a student must have attended New Trier five or more semesters.

The winners of the prizes, which will be awarded some time in May, will be selected by the five teachers in the Commerce department.

Prizes have been offered for some time by several residents of the township to encourage good work in various departments of the school. This is the first offer, however, from a township business organization.

EXHIBIT HOUSE MODELS

During this week and next the attractive house and garden models made by Mrs. Jone Lind of Kenilworth for the New York Garden show and Chicago's Second Annual Flower and Garden show at the Hotel Sherman are on exhibit at Lord's store in Evanston. Mrs. Lind, whose home is at 316 Richmond road, is embarking upon a career as landscape designer and consultant on garden accessories.

BUY EVANSTON HOTEL

Alfred B. Andrews and Frederick Bulley Take Over Hostelry

The Evanston hotel, pioneer in modern hostelry in this city at the time of its completion, has just been purchased by Alfred B. Andrews of Evanston and Frederick Bulley of Kenilworth. Negotiations, which have been pending for several months, were completed after the court on April 18 had entered a decree authorizing F. C. Williams of New York City, trustee of the estate of Frank C. Lewin, to consummate the sale to the two men. Mr. Lewin was the builder of the hotel twelve years ago and its original owner.

Purchase of the hotel by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Bulley keeps it in the hands of men acquainted with north shore standards, as both have been residents of their respective homes for twenty years.

Mr. Andrews, one of the purchasers of the hotel, has large property interests in Evanston which he spends his time operating. He was the framer of the first setback ordinance of building lines which proved workable and effective in Illinois. Mr. Bulley, the other purchaser, is the controlling owner of the contracting company, Bulley & Andrews, with which Mr. Andrews was connected at one time. Mr. Bulley is an officer of the Village of Kenilworth, director of the Union League club and an officer in the Associated Builders' organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Arnold Benson of 211 Franklin road, Glencoe, are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, Robert Alfred Benson, at the Evanston hospital. Before her marriage, Mrs. Benson was Miss Susan Perkins of Memphis, Tenn.

The North Shore Oberlin Woman's club will meet with Mrs. Marshall Galloway, 810 Ingleside Place, Evanston, Monday, April 30, at 2:30 o'clock.
