"Mohammedanism" Topic of Men's Class Lecture

Prof. Charles W. Braden, who for several weeks past has been discussing the world's great non-Christian religions before the Men's class of Winnetka Congregational church, will take Mohammedanism as his subject for Sunday, April 29. This talk will conclude the series originally planned, but the committee in charge states that it hopes to retain Professor Braden further for an outline of the historical development of Christianity. Definite announcement in this regard will be made at next Sunday's meeting.

The class meets at 9:45 o'clock in the American Legion room of Community House.

Ruth Callerman Marries at Drake Hotel April 25

On Wednesday, April 25, Miss Ruth Callerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Charles Callerman, 133 Bertling lane, was married to Paul Kruse of Chicago.

The wedding took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Drake hotel and was followed by a reception. Miss Callerman was beautifully gowned in white satin and tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Sylvia Damon, who attends Northwestern, wore shaded pink tulle and carried a sheaf of pink roses, Rev. Jacob Pister of Chicago read the service.

Mr. Kruse is the 'cellist in Al Kvale's orchestra at the Norshore theatre and Mr. Kvale was the best man. Benjamin Sanchick, the pianist in the orchestra played the wedding march and Mr. Milton Park and Mr. Robert E. Lanestrem were the ushers.
