

National Official Will Be on Program of B. & P. W. Meet

Mrs. Emily R. Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, will come from New York city to be one of the speakers at the convention of the state federation of these clubs which will be held in Evanston May 11 and 12.

Miss Kneubuhl is a widely sought lecturer and speaker upon international affairs, and during the last six years has spoken in 27 states before representatives of all the larger women's organizations. She has recently spent some time in Geneva, Switzerland, and has written highly interesting magazine articles regarding the League of Nations and the picturesque city in which it meets.

She came to the national federation and her office with it after a highly successful career as organizer and executive. Following her graduation from the University of Minnesota she was a teacher and principal of one of Minnesota's largest schools. She served with the War Camp Community service, served as organizer of the Minnesota League of Women Voters and of the Cincinnati league. She conducted Cincinnati's campaign for a city manager charter in 1924 and did similar work in Rochester, N. Y., and in Minneapolis. Prior to joining the staff of the national federation she was connected with the faculty of the School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse university.

Miss Kneubuhl will be one of four speakers at the banquet session of the convention. This will be held Saturday evening, May 12, at the North Shore hotel and will be the closing event of the two days' convention. Other speakers will be Miss Martha Connolle, a lawyer of East St. Louis and chairman of the department of legislation of the national federation; Mrs. William Gary Brown of Chicago, chairman of the national transportation committee, and Mrs. Louise Ayres Garnett, Evanston poet, composer and writer.

Chicago Art Association Honors North Shore Men

Two members of the North Shore Art league have had their entries accepted by the Chicago Galleries association for the semi-annual exhibition of artist members of the association. Rudolph Ingerle's painting "Landscape" was accepted as was Allen Philbrick's "Beech Woods."

The paintings are to be on view from May to June 1, at the Galleries, 220 North Michigan avenue.

The Chicago Galleries association is a co-operative organization of laymen and artists, organized to exhibit and sell the works of art of its artist members. This year the association is planning to put into practice a new plan—the Home Circulating Gallery. Each member of this Circulating Gallery is entitled to take one of the pictures home to keep for a period of thirty days, after which the picture is returned, and another one taken out. The privilege of having twelve fine pictures in the home during the year is made possible at a modest cost.

The Junior Music Club of New Trier High school met last week at the home of Jane Orr on Grove street, Glencoe. The Senior Music club met Thursday, April 26, at the home of Katherine Farrar, 1210 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

HEAR DR. CORNELL

Friday evening, April 27, Dr. D. H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church spoke to the members of the North Shore Congregation Israel on "Immortality—Its Prospects and Practical Bearing on Life" at services Friday, April 27. This was Rev. Cornell's first lecture before the congregation.

The HOMESTEAD TEA ROOM

Just one of a score of exclusive features that make The Homestead "a way of living"

FORTUNATE indeed is the hostess who has such a delightful place for the entertainment of her guests as the Tea Room at The Homestead. The rich tapestry of the colorful wall paper, printed in France from century-old blocks, and depicting Early American scenes, lends an air of unique charm to this friendly room. And there are sunny mullioned windows, a broad fireplace built of bricks brought from Holland, old English prints, a rough-hewn beamed ceiling, and a pegged and butterfly-joined floor. A setting both restful and interesting!

Every Homestead apartment is completely furnished in Early American style.

Silver, linens, china, electric refrigeration, gas and light are included. Extra maid service available.

The Homestead booklet presents more particulars—ask for a copy.

You must see The Homestead to understand why so many discriminating people have chosen it as their home—only a few Homestead apartments remain unoccupied, Four, three or two rooms, with kitchenette and breakfast room; single rooms with bath. Your early selection is suggested.
