"Price of Free Speech"
Subject at Men's Class

The Men's class of Winnetka Congregational church plans to close the present season with its meeting on May 20. Activities will be resumed next fall under the guidance of the newly-elected officers, Glenn C. Bull, president; Harry M. Mess, vice-president; and Edward J. Flannery, secretary-treasurer.

Sunday, May 6, the class, which is noted for its freedom of expression, will discuss "The Price of Free Speech," under the leadership of the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin. On May 13 Dr. J. W. F. Davies will speak on "Movements in Religious Education."

Prof. Charles L. Braden of Northwestern university will give an outline of the "Historical Development of Christianity" at the meeting on May 20. This last will supplement the reviews of the world's great non-Christian religions, which Professor Braden concluded at the last meeting of the class in April.

The hour of these meetings is 9:45 A. M. The class extends an invitation to all who may care to join it or attend its meetings.

Parents Join With Camp Fire Groups
in "Get-Together"

A real get-together evening for parents and Camp Fire Girls was held at Community House Friday, April 27. There were very attractive exhibits of handicraft and knot charts by the different Camp Fire groups, in fact, so attractive it was difficult for the judges to award the prizes.

The prize for the best variety was given to Mrs. Winscott's group, for the best knot chart to Miss Dorothy Prouty of Mrs. Eisenbrand's group, and for the best variety of knot charts to Miss Mildred Olson's group. Mention was made of Mrs. Philip Fisher's group, which had a fine display of children's clothes and which won the National birthday prize from Camp Fire headquarters. The judges were Harry Clarke, chairman; E. E. Stults, Mrs. E. M. Maddox and Mrs. C. J. Heyda.

Dr. J. W. F. Davies, as chairman of Camp Fire council, gave a word of greeting, and Ruth Jackson gave a talk on the meaning and ideals of Camp Fire.

The girls then sang their "Walking Song," led by Mrs. John Marshall, which was followed by a knot-tying contest participated in by a few girls from each group and in charge of three Boy Scouts with John Ballenger in charge, assisted by Brewster Adams and Henry Stanton. The girls taking part were: Louise Wagner, Ruth Jackson, Flossie Nelson, Helen Stults, Eleanor Anderson, Beverly Rosenthal, Kathleen Johnston, Virginia Lang, Virginia Kloefer, Betty Harding, Louise Varney, Gertrude Galloway, Dorothy Sawyer. Virginia Kloefer won first place, Ruth Jackson second place, and Betty Harding third place. Then came the frolic of the evening, games and stunts, led by Harry Clarke and enjoyed by both parents and the girls.

Refreshments were served by the social committee, Mrs. Stults, chairman, and a social hour followed.

Parents' Night with Camp Fire Girls gave the parents a real insight as to the true meaning of Camp Fire—"to glorify work—health—and love."
—M. S. H.

Mrs. Wiley J. Huddle, 794 Rosewood avenue, retiring president of the Woman's Society of the Congregational church, gave a farewell address and welcomed the new officers at a meeting of the society on Monday, May 2.
