Present Benefit Entertainment for Community House

(Contributed)

The Community House benefit entertainment given by the Webb School of Dancing, Monday evening, April 30, in Rudolph Matz hall was presented with charm, artistry and finish; a unique entertainment whose beauty of performance and variety of program showed much skill and gave an evening of genuine pleasure to all—one long to be remembered.

From the parting of the curtains for the prologue in which the Babies danced while Mrs. Webb rendered "We shall try to entertain you," to the finale, "Good Night, Ladies and Gentlemen," sung by Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey and the entire company, the entertainment was delightful. The scenes were unusual and unique, and the dancing and interpretation replete of grace and skill.

The Organ Grinder number and "The House that Jack Built," showing the "Cow with the crumpled horn" were especially appreciated by the children.

The Spanish dance, so gracefully given by Mrs. Webb, called forth several rounds of applause.

Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey and Mrs. Russell F. Locke assisted in the program and their delightful rendering, in costume, of groups of songs added much to the program.

Miss Helen Oakley at the piano gave perfect support to the dancers, and her original music in "The House that Jack Built" was much appreciated.

The whole program was well prepared and delightfully given, and reflects much credit on Mrs. Florence Webb, its originator and director.
