Civic Music Association in Festival This Sunday

Of uncommon interest will be the festival which will be given by the Civic Music association of Chicago in Orchestra hall, Sunday afternoon, May 6, at 3:30 o'clock. A children's chorus, 1,000 voices strong, drawn from the association's classes in the parks and playgrounds of the city, will sing folk-songs, modern songs and a cantata under the direction of Felix Borowski.

The Civic orchestra, which functions under the auspices of the Civic Music association and the Orchestral association, will be heard under the baton of Eric DeLamar in Dvorak's "Carnaval" overture, the Ball Scene by May-seder-Hellmesberger, the arrangement of Schubert's "Moment Musical" made by Frederick Stock, musical director of the Civic orchestra, and in the French Military March from Saint-Saens' Algerian Suite.

Mrs. Claude Peck of Cleveland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Herman B. Butler at Hillrise, 715 Prospect avenue.
