

Temple Players to Give Performance of "This Is London"

(Contributed)

What an amusing situation—when a typical American family and a typical English family get together. That's just what happens in "So This Is London," a three-act comedy presented by the Temple Players of the North Shore Congregation Israel, Saturday evening, May 19, at the Temple's social center, Vernon and Lincoln avenues, Glencoe.

Indeed you will laugh heartily. This farce is presented by the younger group of the temple who so successfully put on "The Youngest" a short while ago. Those of the younger set in North shore suburbs who are taking part in this play are the Misses Marjorie and Jane Hill and Mrs. Arthur Frank of Wilmette, Miss Dorothy Kinstler, Robert Koretz and Milton Klee of Glencoe, Manuel and Alexander Magnus, and Arthur Longini, of Winnetka, Julius Friedlander and Mark Kalischer of Evanston.

Tickets are on sale and may be had from Miss Helen Metz of 854 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, or at the door. The performance will start at 8:20 o'clock.

Benjamin F. Buck, 544 Greenwood avenue, Glencoe, principal of the Nicholas Senn High school, will be the speaker May 9, at the meeting of the Armstrong Parent-Teacher association. Music will be furnished by the Nicholas Senn chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lay, 1408 Edgewood lane, who have been in California all winter, returned to their home Tuesday. They spent a delightful six months motoring west and back.

McGuire Home Scene of Quiet Wedding Service

Miss Florence McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred McGuire of Winnetka, was married to Elbert R. Herlocker of Wilmette on Saturday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock, at a quiet service performed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McGuire. Dr. Horace G. Smith of the Wilmette Methodist church performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Walter J. McGuire, a sister-in-law of the bride, was the only attendant, and Harwood Herlocker, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Herlocker will be at home after September 1, at 119 Tudor place, Kenilworth, after they return from a motor trip to the East. John Herlocker of Freeport, father of the groom, was an out of town guest at the wedding.
