Contract Bridge Lecture Benefit Great Success

The lecture on "Contract Bridge" given by Charles Adams at the Winnetka Woman's club last week and sponsored by the Women's guild of Christ church was a most enjoyable affair. The club was decorated with palms and spring flowers and the tables were covered with soft green. This atmosphere combined with the festive air brought by the many groups that had been attending the dinner parties previous to the lecture made it a happy occasion.

Mr. Adams is an unusually lucid and entertaining speaker. He remarked after the lecture to one of the women who had been in charge of it that he seldom encountered so attentive and appreciative an audience.

Mr. Adams' book on contract bridge was sold during the evening.
