Woman's Society Concludes Season

New Officers Elected and Reports of All Activities Made at Annual Luncheon

(Contributed)

The annual spring luncheon of the Woman's society of the Congregational church took place Wednesday, May 2.

The business meeting followed the luncheon with Mrs. Wiley J. Huddle presiding. Interesting reports of the year's work were given by the chairmen and officers of standing and special committees. The ticket of officers for the ensuing year was unanimously elected. The new officers are: Mrs. Ayres Boal, president; Mrs. W. D. McKenzie, first vice-president; Mrs. Frank Ferry, second vice-president; Mrs. W. A. McKinney, recording secretary; Mrs. Warren Agry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William O. Kurtz, treasurer.

The members at large are: Mrs. J. O. Ely, Mrs. A. Lee Adams, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty.

Chairmen of standing committees: Mrs. W. D. Truesdale, work; Mrs. Roger Ballard, luncheon; Mrs. M. K. Wilson, program; Mrs. George Gordon, world friendship; Mrs. Douglas Smith, flowers; Mrs. W. D. Rumsey, social; Mrs. Harold Weld, circles; Mrs. D. K. French, finance; Mrs. Roy L. Arey, publicity; Mrs. Arthur Cushman, house.

Mrs. Heber Smith, corresponding secretary, gave a brief, but interesting report of her work. Mrs. Leslie Craig reported for Mrs. Roger Ballard on the lunches of the past year. Mrs. Douglas Smith reported the work of the flower committee and will have charge of the work again for the coming year. Mrs. Hutchison spoke of the programs of which she was in charge and which have been unusually interesting.

The world friendship committee, with Mrs. Arthur Boyington as chairman, has taken charge of and provided one half of the programs. This committee also looks after the Onward Neighborhood house.

Mrs. W. D. Truesdale, chairman of the work committee, reported 217 garments made for the Infant Welfare, 131 for the Babies Friendly society; 160 for the Chicago Commons, 37 for Judge Mary Bartelme's girls, 89 for the Samuel Higginbotham Mission in India, 12 creepers for the "Goodtwins" as a Christmas gift, making a total of 646 garments for the year.

Mrs. W. O. Kurtz, who succeeds herself as treasurer of the Woman's society, reported 305 members. The society has taken in $2,150.21 and has spent on benevolences, $1,095.

This record is something the society should be proud of considering the fact that this is independent of the numerous other organizations of the church and the other sales which are run independently of the Woman's society.

Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty gave an interesting report of the twenty neighborhood circles and their work. Each circle is a great boost to the already remarkable community spirit of Winnetka and Mrs. Prouty's leadership has been a great inspiration to all the circles. She spoke of the different ways in which the circles raised money to assist people and organizations in need of financial help and in need of garments. The meetings are held once a month at different homes with the chairman of each circle presiding.

Winnetka Music Club Names New Officers

The Winnetka Music club has announced its newly elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. Harry L. Street will assume the office of president, taking the place of Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt who has served the two years allotted each president.

Mrs. Louis G. Schmid is to be vice-president, Mrs. Arthur Dean is secretary; Mrs. C. E. Carlstrom, treasurer; Mrs. Preston Burlingham, social secretary. Mrs. Louis G. Schmid is also chairman of the program committee with Mrs. Roland Whitman and Mrs. S. G. Bosworth assisting.

There will be a guest meeting of the club on Monday evening, May 7, at the Alpha Xi Delta sorority house in Evanston with the program beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ruth Alexander Redheffer, noted pianist of Highland Park and member of the club, will present several groups of compositions. Mrs. S. F. Bosworth, soprano, will be heard in a group of songs, and Mrs. Valona Brewer, violinist, will complete the program.

Garden Club Meets May 10

There will be a meeting of the Winnetka Garden club next Thursday, at the home of Mrs. John McEwen, 808 Hill road. Mrs. Jacobs of the Garfield Park staff will address the club on the raising of perennials from seed. The club will also discuss further the plans for the May market which is to be held beginning May 26. Mrs. Frederick Christopher is to have charge of the publicity for the market.

children away for outings and rest. Bringing poor children and their mothers to the suburbs for picnics is another fine feature of the work of these circles. $1,478.79 has been taken in by the circles and $642.49 spent. 2,501 garments have been made, 1108 articles worked on, 12 sweaters knitted, making a total of 3,621 articles.

The beneficiaries of the circles are: The Cradle, the Infant Welfare society, Red Cross, Lake Bluff orphanage, Northwestern Settlement House, Frances Willard hospital, Dorcas Home, Winnetka Relief and Aid, Life Boat House (Hinsdale) Protestant Children's home, Judge Mary Bartelme Home for Girls, Mary Crane Nursery school, Chase House, Erie chapel, Little Wanderers Day nursery, Great Lakes hospital, Ridge Preventorium, Hadley School for the Blind, Community House, and Post Graduate hospital.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Wiley J. Huddle, who graciously relinquished the gavel to her successor, Mrs. Ayres Boal, was given a rising vote of thanks for her efficient and inspiring leadership as president of the Woman's society.

The business meeting was followed by two violin numbers played by Mrs. Valona Brewer. One of these numbers was written by Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett and accompanied by her. Mrs. Brewer gave this melodious composition a delightful interpretation.

The last feature of the program was an interesting and amusing play called "Ever Young," written by Alice Gerstenberg and put on by the Community Drama club, Mrs. Charles Karnopp, directing. The parts were very well taken by Mrs. Thomas Ratcliffe, Mrs. Wallace Rumsey, Mrs. Frederick Sterling and Mrs. Percival Hunter.

The very charming and fitting setting for the play was done by Mrs. Louis Sherman.

North Shore Girls in Spring Pageant

Completing Rehearsals for An- nual Event of National Col- lege May 10 and 11

The annual Spring pageant of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college will be held in Harrison hall on Thursday and Friday evenings, May 10 and 11. Rehearsals for the performance, in which 187 of the graduating students will take part, are nearing perfection and the program promises to be an unusually fine one.

The pageant opens with the presentation by the choir of an exquisite little operetta, "The Last Tea of Tsuki," followed by a quaint, old-fashioned drama, "The Lady Loses Her Hoop." "The Aeroplane Girls and Their Man in the Moon," with clever costume and dance, comes as an entertaining interlude, and is followed by "An Allegory of Life," a dance pantomime of dramatic power and beauty, and, last on the program, a gypsy encampment with all the witchery and fascination of the folk dances of gypsies of many countries.

As a climax to the pageant on both evenings there will be the crowning of the May Queen—the two girls receiving the highest number of votes from the students for the one who best represents the ideals of the college being thus honored. The fact that the results of the election are not known until the girl appears on the stage as the May Queen accounts for the enthusiasm and applause which invariably greet her appearance.

The north shore is well represented in the pageant, the following students having been chosen for the cast:

Maxine Bowen, Marion Browning, Alfreda Chalberg, Margaret Chamberlin, Ruth Cole, Gertrude Drew, Gene Gallagher, Katharine Kean, Elizabeth Peabody, Isabel Raymond, Maxine Ritchie, Nancy Robbins, Althea Smith, Armida Stewart, Myrthel Strand, Catherine Wilcox, and Virginia Zolle of Evanston; Rosalie Budinger, Mary Crush, Anne Matson, Louise Nilles and Louise Henrekson of Wilmette; Bernice Abraham, Anne Balak, Roberta McDonald and Helen Hubsch of Winnetka; Carolyn Ballou, Dorothy Beck and Mabel Enright of Glencoe and Esther Christie of Kenilworth.

The pageant is given by the students as a benefit for the building fund, and tickets may be secured at the college office, telephone Greenleaf 221, or from the students. The sale of tickets for reserved seats will open on Tuesday, May 1.

KASKASKIA D. A. R. TO MEET

The annual meeting of the Kaskaskia chapter of the D. A. R., will be held next Tuesday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. John F. Dille, 2727 Lincoln street, Evanston. Several other members of the club will assist Mrs. Dille in serving luncheon and during the business meeting in the afternoon the officers for the coming year will be elected.

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league is to have a reception for all new members and the new officers on Tuesday, May 8, at 2 o'clock, at the Winnetka Woman's club.

The Junior members of the Southern Woman's club of Chicago are having a luncheon at the Illinois Women's Athletic club to-day. The luncheon will be followed by a Splash party.
