Varsity Offers "Something Always Happens" Saturday

"Something Always Happens" is the film being featured at the Varsity theater during the last two days of this week. The subject matter is centered upon what happens when a person wishes for something to happen and Neil Hamilton and Sojin vie with one another in giving Esther Ralston a lasting thrill. It is a delightful melodramatic farce and should please.

No advance information is available on "The Sporting Age," a Belle Bennett feature which has been scheduled by Lubliner and Trinz for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Considering Belle's past achievements, however, it's a pretty safe bet that it will be good entertainment.

Johnny Hines' "Chinatown Charley" concludes the week's program. "Chinatown Charley" is one of Johnny's very best productions. It's full of gags and laughs and is refreshingly free from the usual comedy formula. Nice melodrama, thrills enough and a splendid supporting cast.

COSMOPOLITAN CAST

The cast of Laura La Plante's starring vehicle for Universal, "Thanks for the Buggy Ride," is truly cosmopolitan. Miss La Plante was born in St. Louis, Mo.; Glenn Tryon, Butte, Mont.; David Rollins, Kansas City, Mo.; Trixie Friganza, Ly Cygne, Kan.; Kate Price, Cork, Ireland, and Lee Moran, Chicago, Ill.

Go to the Movies Next Week; You'll Have a Good Time

The coming week is one period of seven days, insofar as north shore movie houses are concerned, that almost regardless of which night or which theater you choose, you can return home after the show without the feeling of having wasted a perfectly good evening.

Teatro del Lago starts the week's roster Sunday with Ramon Navarro in the "Student Prince." The story needs no introduction so it remains but to say that the film is beautiful. Jean Hersholt as Dr. Juttner, the prince's tutor, is lovable and provides an interesting and touching bit to the picture. Ramon is, as always,—well, himself. Norma Shearer plays the role of Kathie.

I believe that you will like "The Jazz Singer." Aside from the fact that most people lack sales resistance where Al Jolson is concerned, the story is dramatically interesting and while Al is not the best shadow actor in the world, he gives a good performance.

"Dressed to Kill" offers perfect story construction, splendid acting and fast action. It is a tale of the underworld from the inside of a gangster's lair. You'll like it. Edmund Lowe, Mary Astor and Ben Bard are the principals.

Of the three pictures that are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, which are "The Heart of a Follies Girl," "Something Always Happens," and "Thanks for the Buggy Ride" in the order named, the last two are the most outstanding. All are good entertainment.

"Thanks for the Buggy Ride" is by Universal. It is a comedy with an original idea and presents Laura LaPlante at her best. "Something Always Happens" is a splendid melodramatic farce in which Esther Ralston gets a decided surprise. Neil Hamilton and Sojin originate the surprise.

Community House Presents "Fourflusher" Tuesday

The two films selected by Burton H. Atwood, Jr., for showing on Tuesday and Friday of next week at Community House are "The Fourflusher" and "Let 'er Go Gallagher."

"The Fourflusher" offers the indefinable charm of youth in a story that is delightful. It is, briefly, about a smart-aleck in business. George Lewis and the Collegian gang with Marion Nixon playing the feminine lead.

Junior Coghlan, Harrison Ford, Elinor Fair and Ivan Lebedeff are the principals in the cast of "Let 'er Go Gallagher." It is said to be Junior's best work.
