

BUILDING IN WILMETTE IN APRIL SHOWS DECLINE

Permits Issued for Five Residences Costing $122,000—Total for Month Is $146,384

Building activities in Wilmette in April, as far as dollars and cents are concerned, were 45 percent less than in April a year ago, but the 33 permits issued were only one less than the number in the corresponding month of 1927.

Five new residences were authorized last month, totaling $122,000, five were for remodeling work costing $11,800, while 23 of the 33 permits were for private garages costing $12,584. The grand total for the month was $146,384. The total for April last year was $213,275.

Two of the permits issued the past month were for residences in the Indian Hill Estates, one for $30,000 and the other for $47,000, the former being to R. H. Henderson, who is building at 2710 Blackhawk road, and the latter to Fred G. Becker, who is building at 2745 Ashland avenue.

SCREENS ARE IMPORTANT

No member of the family but is benefited by a well screened home. It is not too early to begin thinking about it now—that is if your home is new and screens have not yet been provided for or if your screens are old and must be replaced.
