

Lee Says:

THIS little message
IS for the ladies today—
WILL the men please
RETIRE while we present
THIS matter!

(Pause for few moments
while men retire)

ALL right ladies, now
THAT we're alone, we
WANT to remind you that
SPRING is just ahead—
NOTHING very new or
STARTLING about that,
BUT here's the point,—
WHEN the sun shines,
THE freckles are apt
TO appear and complexion
TROUBLES are sure to INCREASE, and right
THERE is where we can
BE of invaluable service
TO you!

YOU see, we carry the ELIZABETH Arden line of
COSMETICS—a line that
WILL protect, add charm,
AND enhance your natural BEAUTY—we sincerely and CONSCIENTIOUSLY recommend ARDEN'S cosmetics to
OUR lady customers.

DR. G. D. ALLISON IS NEW BAPTIST MINISTER

Accepts Unanimous Call of Wilmette Church; Leaves Prominent Delaware Pastorate

Dr. George D. Allison, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Wilmington, Del., has accepted the call of the Wilmette Baptist church, to be its pastor. He will take charge of the church early in June.

Dr. Allison was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and has always lived in the East. He graduated with honors from Brown university in 1905, was given a Bachelor of Divinity degree by the Union Theological seminary, New York City, in 1908. He also holds a Master of Arts degree in Columbia university, having majored in Sociology.

Fine Civic Leader

After his seminary days Dr. Allison had a wonderful pastorate in Rutherford, N. J., a suburb of New York City. During a pastorate of eleven years he built up a strong congregation and rebuilt the church building. Leaving Rutherford in 1920, he accepted the pastorate of the Second Baptist church of Wilmington, Del. This is the leading Baptist church in the state. His success in Wilmington has been noteworthy and he has endeared himself to the entire city. One of the features of his pastorate was radio broadcasting of the Sunday night service. Dr. Allison was president of the Baptist State Convention of Delaware for four years, was elected grand chaplain of the Masons, also chaplain of the Kiwanis club, and also has held many other community and state honors.

Mrs. Allison, who has always been prominent in girls' and women's work in the church, is a graduate of the New York State College for Teachers. The family consists of two boys, ages 11 and 4.

Miss Inez Webster of Kenilworth will entertain a group of her friends Saturday evening following the Junior prom at New Trier High school.

MOTHERS' DAY FLOWERS

Every mother's son of you should remember your best friend on Mothers' Day. The most popular way is to send her a bouquet of flowers. You can recall the kind she loves best. Well, then, let it be a huge bunch of her favorites. We have them and we will send them anywhere you want them to go. Now, boys, do not forget your duty on Mothers' Day.
