TO SING IN FESTIVAL

Mlle. D'Alvarez Regarded as One of World's Greatest Contraltos

Mlle. Marguerite D'Alvarez will sing in Evanston at the May festival of the North Shore Festival association, Tuesday evening, May 22.

Among her numbers will be the beautiful aria from "Samson and Delilah," "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." With two recent appearances in Chicago the critics have written of her that she "is one of the greatest contraltos of modern times."

She will appear in Evanston on the program with Richard Crooks, and will include a Hindu love song in her program. She is known to thousands through her interpretation of "Carmen" and "Delilah" and has won new fame in the last year through her staunch and fearless advocacy of modern American music.

Mlle. D'Alvarez is a Peruvian, born in Liverpool, and educated in Belgium. She became an American by adoption. As the daughter of the Peruvian minister to England she enjoyed the benefits of an aristocratic ancestry and an early artistic environment, together with the educational and cultural opportunities of the European courts. On her mother's side she has the traditional nobility of the Incas in her blood. Her grandmother was the last Inca princess of Peru, and the first Peruvian battleship was paid for with her grandmother's pearls.

Rev. F. C. Stifler Takes Pastorate at East Orange, N. J.

Rev. Francis Carr Stifler, pastor of the Wilmette Baptist church from April, 1917, until three months ago, has just announced his acceptance of the call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of East Orange, N. J. The East Orange church is the leading Baptist congregation of that famous suburb, which now has a population of 72,000. Unlike the local church, the East Orange church has just recently celebrated its 90th anniversary.

Mr. Stifler's new charge is a church of 600 members and with annual gifts to missions of $8,000. With the coming of Mr. Stifler the church will enter at once upon a program of building expansion. In the fall ground will be broken for an educational and recreational building that will cost $120,000. The church building stands on a very commanding site in the heart of the city with ample space for additions.

Among the leading members of the East Orange church is Dr. Frank L. Anderson, who is now president of the International Baptist Seminary, located in the New York suburb. Dr. Anderson as superintendent of the Baptist Executive council in 1917 was in charge of the Wilmette pulpit at the time that Mr. Stifler's call was accepted. Dr. Anderson now welcomes Mr. Stifler to this new field.

Mr. Stifler closed his work with the Wilmette church on January 31, since which time he has conducted special evangelistic services in Berwyn, Ill., preached in Evanston, Oak Park, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Elizabeth, N. J., Roselle, N. J., and at Lowell, Mass. Mr. Stifler will occupy his old pulpit in Wilmette Sunday, May 13, Mothers' Day. His pastorate at East Orange commences two days later, or on May 15.

"VISION," SERMON TOPIC

"Vision" will be the topic of the sermon given by the Rev. R. Malcolm Ward, assistant rector, at the 11 o'clock service in Christ church tomorrow morning.
