

Week-end Vacations— Always Eventful in Beautiful Barrington

On Saturday afternoon, when you say to the family, "Well, where shall we go?" and someone suggests a favorite Wisconsin lake resort, haven't you often had to say, "No, it's too far. I've got to think about getting back to work on Monday."

Such a problem never troubles you if you live in Barrington—that delightful country community out on the Northwest Highway. For Barrington is within convenient commuting distance of Chicago—44 minutes by rail. Still Lake Geneva is only 40 miles away to the north. You can easily motor out in an hour or so.

No wonder an increasing number of Chicago families are moving to Barrington every year—to enjoy the delights of its outdoor diversions. Hunting, riding and golfing are part of the daily programs. Woodland trails encourage walking, and paved roads give quick access to the city and suburbs by motor.

A few acres or a large tract in this fast growing community can be obtained at a price that allows a good opportunity for profit. They are well within the reach of the family of moderate means.
