Prominent Journalists on Matrix Program

Inez Haynes Irwin (right), widely traveled author who has three years' experiences including several trips to the front to relate, will be the chief speaker at the annual Matrix Table of the Northwestern chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary fraternity for women in journalism, Tuesday evening at the Orrington hotel; and Genevieve Forbes Herrick, Evanston journalist, will be the toastmistress. Several hundred women prominent in campus activities, and in literary circles have been invited to the banquet.
