

BACK IN WINNETKA

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ellsworth, 460 Cedar street, have spent a delightful winter motoring through their favorite haunts in the southwest. During their trip they visited many interesting spots in New Mexico and Arizona, one of which was the Carlsbad Caverns near Carlsbad in the southeastern part of New Mexico. They also spent about three week with relatives in Laurel, Miss. Mr. Ellsworth returned home a few days before Mrs. Ellsworth as she went on east to Bryn Mawr to attend her class reunion which was held there during the May festival.

Beautify and Preserve Your Home

MINWAX Brick & Cement Coating decorates and seals the surface of stucco, brick and cement exteriors.

MINWAX Coating is a penetrating waterproofing material which prevents absorption of water into or through the walls and a clean, even color is easily maintained.

Many North Shore homes are to be "Water-proofed with Decoration" by us this summer.

Jean Burns, Evanston reader and coach, will play the romantic lead in "The Knot," the three-act play by Marion Lawrence Nelson to be produced May 29, 30, 31 and June 1 at Northwestern university School of Speech under Town and Gown auspices. Graduated from the School of Speech, Miss Burns lived in Evanston until leaving two years ago, following her marriage, for the Philippines, where her husband was stationed in various posts. While in the Orient she played the leading roles in a players' company which appeared in various army post towns.

Among the north shore girls who went east last week-end for the Princeton houseparty were Miss Mary Ott, Miss Beatrice Ripley, Miss Isabel Scott and Miss Marjorie Janney of Winnetka and Miss Henrietta Bird of Wilmette.
