Future Winnetka Cop
Weighs in at 8 Pounds

A son was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bemus, at the Evanston hospital. This is their first child. He has been christened Calvin Leroy, and they say is the image of his dad. He weighs in, in "life's arena," at 8 pounds, one and one-half ounces, and promises to be as handy with his dukes, as his dad, but, perhaps, will never attain the latter's proficiency as a motorcycle cop.

ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. George Karnes gave a very pretty luncheon and miscellaneous shower at her home at 151 Fuller lane last week. She entertained twelve guests in honor of Miss Madeline Hinrich of Evanston who is to be married on June 9, to Joseph Nicollas.

Camp Fire Calls to Council Fire Ceremony Today

The Winnetka Camp Fire Girls are sending the call of "Wohelo" to their friends and are looking forward to seeing them and all who are interested in Camp Fire at their Grand Council Fire, this evening in Community House.

On this occasion the beautiful Camp Fire ritual is used with candle lighting ceremonies, and songs. In a large circle around the Camp Fire the girls receive their ranks for which they have been working during the year.

Miss Lea Taylor, head resident of Chicago Commons, will be the speaker of the evening.

The following girls will receive their ranks:

Woodgatherers — Carolyn Barrett, Henrietta Boal, Freda Simon, Dorothy Sawyer, Eleanor Anderson, Carmen Wilson, Grace Erickson, Harriet Daughaday, Leslie Wilson, Florence Howell, Elizabeth Barden, Jane Sweet, Virginia Johnston, and Florence Nelson.

Firemakers—Elizabeth Boldenweck, Frances Simon, Frances Winscott, Miriam Fetcher, Betty Maddox, Clara Orvis, Helen Stults, Louise Varney, Virginia Kloepfer, Virginia Lang, Virginia Dunlap, Mary McFadzean, Helen Orvis, and Marian Fisher.

Torchbearers—Olive Eason, Dorothy Prouty, June Heyda, Vivian Eisenbrand.

The Council Fire will be at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, May 19, in Rudolph Matz hall, and all who are interested in knowing more of Camp Fire are cordially invited to attend.

The Sigma Chi fraternity will entertain at a supper dance at Westmoreland club Friday evening, May 25.
