

Lee Says:—

ALONG about this time
 OF year lots of people
 CONTRACT the "spring
 FEVER," otherwise
 KNOWN as "that tired
 FEELING," and we've
 ALREADY met a number
 OF the victims here
 IN our store—
 FIRST symptom you
 NOTICE is prolonged
 YAWNING, coupled with a
 DESIRE to stretch and
 TO look out of the WINDOW—arms dangle
 LIMPLY and the mind
 REFUSES to think—
 AMBISH all gone!
 IF those are your
 SYMPTOMS, you need a
 GOOD spring tonic and
 THAT naturally suggests
 BEEF, iron and wine, a tonic
 THAT tones up the SYSTEM, gives you a
 GOOD appetite, and
 REBUILDS your run-down
 NERVES—we recommend it
 VERY highly.

P. W. Bradstreet & Son Move to Bank Building

P. W. Bradstreet and Son have moved their real estate office from 788 Elm street to room No. 1, on the second floor of the Meyer Bank building, 799 Elm street, but their old friends and clients should have no difficulty in remembering their new location. They are still in the same block on Elm, but on the opposite side of the street, and ten numbers and one story higher. The Senior Mr. Bradstreet has been ill, suffering a severe attack of the flu, but is back again at his desk.

Get Your Lessons From the Squirrels!

WE'VE all seen them in the fall busily storing their food for the winter months . . . Still only a small percentage of men have the foresight to be as provident as the squirrels.
