Winnetka Nine to Meet Wielanders Sunday Afternoon

By Oliver J. Hance

Winnetka's Jack-the-Giant-Killer aspirations didn't go over so big in Waukegan last week, and the champions of that urban community who have also annexed the North Shore title for two seasons let the itinerant

Winnetkans diamond contingent down with a 10-2 loss on their hands.

But the battle was not without a struggle. Panosh, the ace of the Winnetka staff, was not Panosh for the first two innings and Waukeganites wandered the bases freely to build up an eight run lead in the first two stanzas.

Immediately thereafter, however, the worthy moundman of the Winnetka nine settled down and allowed the conquerors but three safe blows and chalked up nine strike-outs to his record as a twirler.

The Winnetka stick work also recovered from its early lethargy and they held the champions run for run for the remainder of the battle.

This Sunday the prides of the Wieland Dairies of Chicago will do battle with the locals. Panosh is again slated for mound duty, and the Winnetka nine expects to recover its winning ways.

Considerable warbling concerning the prestige and prowess of the invaders from the Wieland dairies has emanated from the village to the south, but the locals are confident of being able to stave off any attack the Wielanders might launch against them.

The Winnetka success in the past has been mainly due to George Panosh, the crafty twirler who has chalked up twenty-two strike-outs in his last two performances for Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pavey, 845 Lincoln avenue, entertained twenty guests at a buffet supper last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Anne Pavey who has just returned from a Mediterranean cruise.

Walter A. Sawyer, 604 Lincoln avenue, left last Sunday for Cleveland, Ohio. He is expected to return tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting of 830 Mount Pleasant court again have rented their home for the summer and are going to Europe.
