

Elect Helen Boylan 1st Vice-President of State B. & P. W.

Miss Helen Boylan of Evanston was elected to the first vice presidency of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women at the annual convention here last weekend which 215 delegates from all over the state attended. This is the second office in the state federation which Miss Boylan has held in as many years.

Miss Erma Templeman of Springfield, who presided at this year's convention, was reelected to the presidency, and the other officers named were: second vice president, Mrs. George McMahon of Robinson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rena Tomlins of Springfield; recording secretary, Miss Jennie Rabjohns of Jacksonville; treasurer, Miss Emma M. Guenther.

In a banquet attended by nearly 400 women the convention reached its close Saturday evening when one of the principal addresses was made by Miss Emily Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women.

Women as the determining factor in the November election . . . Women as the leaders of the future who will complement the efforts their brothers have made in the past . . . Women of economic independence . . . dreamers of ideas which will reach fruition in contrast to men who usually think in terms of the past of present. These are the women Miss Kneubuhl conceived.

"We have arrived at a new order in civilization," she said. "The industrial revolution has made us use that part of our anatomy above our necks." Fundamental to woman's new position is economic independence and, with that established, development of leadership will follow, Miss Kneubuhl stated.

"As individuals we should make ready to accept that leadership by making sure of our training, being particular of performance, and wise in our finances."

Women have one of their greatest responsibilities at the present, an intelligent ballot in November, stated the speaker and pointed out that the 49,000 women of the national federation could control 2,000,000 votes in this country, a number more than large enough to control the election.
