Dairymen Defeat Winnetka's Ball Contingent 9 to 5

By Oliver J. Hance

It was the pinches that hurt Sunday, and the Winnetka Nine salaamed its way to defeat at the hands of the

Frank Schultz

Wieland milk-toting diamondeers by a 9-5 count. For in those pinches, Winnetka batters graciously fanned and sent pop-flies out to bring the Wieland moundsmen out of several embarrassing situations.

Winnetka's kowtow complex was not confined to the platerwork, for afield the locals continued their Alphonse and Gaston act. They were hosts, and they aimed to please their guests. The outfielders, filled with the spirit of the party, were loathe to hang on to the pellet when a Wielander poled it out to their portion of the garden, and thereby presented the milkmen with several unearned bases.

Panosh, Winnetka's twirling ace, looked like a deuce, with "deuces wild," for the first few stanzas, but then dropped back into his star role and sent an even dozen milkmen meandering to the bench via strike-out road.

Frankie Schultz, who exercises his "It" to elicit free passes to first from benevolent flinging, garnered four more walks in five trips to the platter. This gives the proficient third sacker ten gratis billets to the initial bag in fifteen times at bat.

With the Wieland-Winnetka benevolence battle well interred in the archives, the locals are prepping for their game with the Asbury Park sortsmen Sunday.

Now that the townspeople have returned from their annual Derby sojourn at Churchill Downs, a capacity crowd of supporters of the local outfit is expected to be on hand to cheer their official disporters on the ball field.

The Albany Park contingent comes to Winnetka flaunting a remarkable reputation as a hot aggregation, and a nip and tuck melee may be looked for.

They will stage the Sunday struggle at 3 p. m., at Skokie Playfield Golf course, Elm street at Hibbard road.

P. T. A. Is Aiding Teachers Who Seek Living Quarters

The Parent-Teacher association of Winnetka asks that families who would like to have a teacher live with them next school year communicate with the association immediately. Some teachers require a room, with breakfast and dinner, while others prefer a room, with breakfast only. Others merely ask for a room in a private family.

If you can accommodate one or more teachers, please communicate with Mrs. Lawrence Cole, 1111 Cherry street, telephone Winnetka 2085.

TO WED SATURDAY

The wedding of Miss Mable Vogel of the faculty of the Winnetka public schools, and Archie Morphet, 964 Tower road, will take place this Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A reception for the young couple will be held at the home of Supt. Carleton Washburne immediately following the ceremony.
