Spring Concert at New Trier Pleases Capacity Audience

The New Trier Music department gave its annual spring concert Friday evening, May 18, in the school auditorium. It was an informal affair, without programs or ushers, but highly successful.

Mrs. Homer E. Cotton, head of the music department, addressed the audience, explaining the work and aims of the music department, and introducing the other members of the department, Miss Winifred Mickey, Miss Adelaide Jones, and Mrs. Ada Tilly Allen.

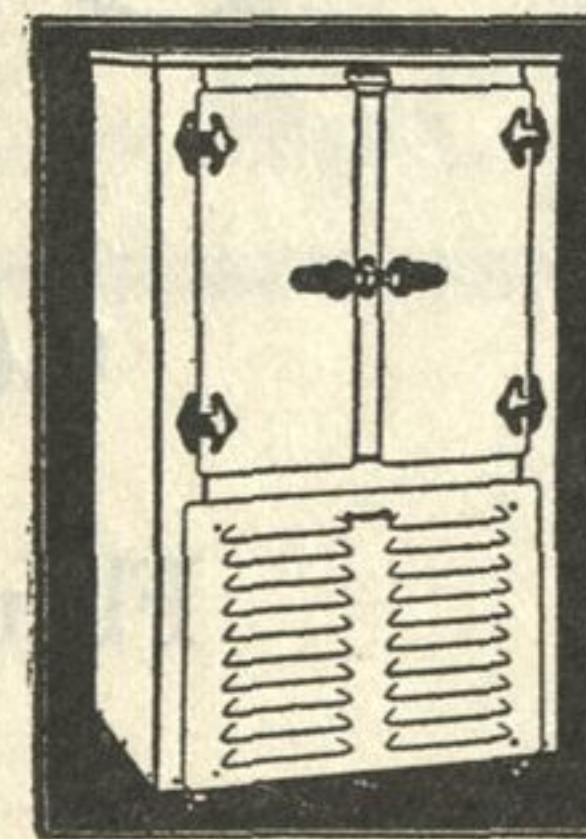

The first group on the program was the Wilmette Grade school orchestra, conducted by Miss Katherine Grandquist, a former student at New Trier. This orchestra, composed of children of all ages, many of them very young, played extraordinarily well. Following this Mrs. Allen, voice teacher, spoke on the voice work, and stressed the fact that her object was not so much to develop the voice as it was to preserve it. She illustrated her points with the work of some of her pupils. Edith Clerk, Helen Hutchens, and Lottie Kuenkele were the girls who sang, and the boys were Harold Tarrant, Delma Caldwell, Arthur Van Deursen, and Clifton Darling. Harold Tarrant, who played the part of Blondel, the king's minstrel, in "Sherwood," which was recently presented at the school, sang Blondel's song, since so many people had expressed a desire to hear it again.

After these soloists the Girls' and Boys' Glee clubs sang, first the girls, then the boys, then both together.

Miss Pauline Manchester, who recently won the contest sponsored by the Society of American Musicians, and received a Mason and Hamlin piano, played one of the Chopin Etudes. Miss Manchester also was a former student at New Trier.

The New Trier band concluded the program with several martial numbers with much zest.
