The experienced traveler will tell you that in order to enjoy your contemplated journey to the full, all details should be planned well in advance of your leave taking.

The experienced traveler will counsel you to seek the services and advice of a travel bureau whose knowledge and experience assures you a safe, convenient, and above all, a comfortable journey.

The North Shore Travel Service is composed of a group of world travelers. Their personal experience enables them to plan with you an itinerary best suited to your tastes, and to assure you in your travel arrangements the greatest comfort and satisfaction. Through their eastern representative you are able to get attention not otherwise possible.

Their service gives you in addition personal suggestions that add to the intangible pleasures of a sojourn abroad.

Let them plan your next trip with you.
