For the Busy Play Days of the Modern Miss

THE MODERN MISS who goes in for active outdoor sports must have perfect foot comfort that allows her to forget her shoes. But others will see and notice them, so she must have style as well.

Comfort and style—a rare and enviable combination most graciously blended in these new Modern Miss Sport Oxfords! As good to wear as to look upon . . . as faithful at the eighteenth green as at the first.

There'll be no replacing of divots occasioned by these heels—the practical one-and-a-quarter inch height eliminates that handicap!

Purple Track Stars Seek Olympic Posts

This trio of Purple track stars will be looked to for Northwestern's strongest bids to conference honors as well as to positions on the United States Olympic team during the Western conference outdoor track and field meet at Dyche stadium this week end. Rut Walter (below) has been burning up the track this spring and is conceded a chance to equal or better the world's record for the quarter mile which has stood since 1916. Captain Bill Droegemueller (upper left) leads the Big Ten pole vaulters and is expected to win his event with a leap of over 13 feet 6 inches. Herman-sen (upper right) lists among the best of the century sprinters.

TO ATTEND ARTISTS' DINNER

Ivan Le Lorraine Albright, formerly of Hubbard Woods, who now has a summer studio at Warrenville, Ill., will be one of the guests of honor of The Association of Chicago Painters and Sculptors on Tuesday, May 22, at a dinner to be held in the Salmagundi Tea room, Chicago. Mr. Albright has recently been elected to membership in the association.

MEET FOR LUNCHEON

The Association of Delta Gamma Mothers met on Thursday of this week at the North Shore hotel, Evanston. Mrs. J. N. Woollett, who is national president of Delta Gamma, spoke on the ideals of sorority life. Luncheon was served in the fountain room, with Mrs. C. C. Fisher, social chairman, in charge.
