

June Brings Its Usual Quota of North Shore Weddings

Early June Weddings Holding Interest of North Shore Society

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

The calendar is now torn off to June and its quota of brides. We have been announcing the dates and plans for some of these weddings for the past week or two, but now as the days draw near for the ceremonies we repeat the time and the place in resumé.

Miss Carolyn Case has chosen 4:30 o'clock as the time, and the lovely grounds surrounding her home as the place for her marriage to Lawrence Norem on June 23. The wedding, at which the Rev. James Austin Richards will officiate, will be followed by a reception on the lawn.

Miss Case's maid of honor will be her cousin, Miss Mary Louise Von Hofsten. Another cousin Miss Frances Von Hofsten will be among the bridesmaids, the others being Miss Ann Leslie Nichol of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Dorothy Garland and Miss Priscilla Page of Boston, Mrs. Franklyn C. Ellis of Rochester, N. Y., Miss Margaret Quan of Chicago, Mrs. Ansel McBride Kinney and Miss Mary Barry of Evanston and Miss Mary Harding of Hubbard Woods.

Henry Hoehn of Winnetka will be Mr. Norem's best man and the ushers include Albert B. Ewing of Louisville, Irving Cox of New York, Kenneth Price of Kansas City, Franklyn C. Ellis of Rochester, Arthur Freytag and James Culbertson of Chicago, Ansel McBride Kinney of Evanston, John Bergstresser of Madison, and John R. Montgomery, Jr., of Hubbard Woods.

Miss Case is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Case, 160 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, and Mr. Norem is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Norem of Milwaukee.

Miss Marjory Janney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence A. Janney, 657 Spruce street, will be married on June 6, to Stephen Robey, son of Mrs. Emily Robey of the Ambassador hotel. The ceremony will be performed in New York City in the presence of only the bride's parents and the bridegroom's mother. There will be no attendants.

Mr. Robey is taking advantage of a ten day holiday just before his graduation at Princeton and will take his bride on a short wedding trip to Bermuda, returning in time to receive his diploma at commencement.

Reception for Prima Donna

Miss Dorothy Speare, young American playwright, novelist, and prima donna, was the guest of honor at a reception given by Mrs. Edward Mack of Glencoe, Friday afternoon, May 25, following Miss Speare's western concert debut as soloist at the North Shore Music festival in Evanston Thursday evening, May 24. Mrs. Mack is president of the Chicago and North Shore Smith Alumnae association, and Miss Speare is a Smith graduate of very recent years. Miss Speare's home is in Boston.

Tea for Hockeyites

Mrs. Emmons Blaine, 960 Sheridan road, entertained a large group at tea at her home yesterday. The guests were members and others interested in the rather recently organized group of north shore women called the North Shore Field Hockey association. This association is composed of three teams, a Winnetka team, a Skokie team, and a team from Evanston. Mrs. Thomas McLaren is president of the organization.

Name Committee Chairmen for Guild Rummage Sale

Mrs. Ernest Ballard, 811 Auburn road, of the Woman's guild of Christ church, entertained the chairmen of the various committees for the Rummage sale that is to be given by the guild next fall, at luncheon yesterday at her home. Definite plans for the sale were discussed and the probable date set for October 18.

The chairmen selected for the committees are: Mrs. William J. Eldridge, storage and transfer; Mrs. C. C. McKinney, luncheon; Mrs. Wyndham H. Channer, finance; Mrs. Gilbert Crowder, publicity; Mrs. John VanderVries, wrapping; Mrs. William Elliott, women's clothes; Mrs. John Guthrie, children's clothes; Mrs. Godfrey Atkin, men's clothes; Mrs. Gross Williams, boy's clothes; Mrs. George Parker, furniture; Mrs. J. C. Cobb, shoes; Mrs. B. K. Smith, books; Mrs. W. A. Barr, jewelry, scarfs, bags; Mrs. Houston Clinch, hosiery and gloves; Mrs. Henry Urion, china and bric-a-brac; Mrs. Ralph Hobart, treasure table; Mrs. J. R. Graff, pictures; Mrs. G. A. Johnstone, curtains, draperies; Mrs. Emory C. Andrews, kitchen utensils; Mrs. H. H. Barnum, lamps and shades; Mrs. Seth Shephard, junk; Mrs. Warren Crawford, order table for work done by the guild.

As stated some time ago Mrs. William Eldridge and her committee members will gladly call for any clothing or anything one may wish to donate at any time as they have arranged storage facilities at the Parish House. A great deal has already been collected and stored there even though it is still several months until the actual sale.

Circle Notes

The Cherry Street circle will hold its closing party of the season in the Camp Fire room at Community House Friday, June 8, at 2 o'clock. At that time the nominating committee will present the names for the new officers for the coming year. Following this short business session, bridge will be played and refreshments will be served.

The Pine Street circle will be the guest of Mrs. William Chatwin, a former circle member, at her home in Ravinia on Friday, June 8, at a garden picnic and bridge. Luncheon will be served on the lawn at 12:30 o'clock. The party will meet at the home of Mrs. Chester L. Van Buskirk, 1096 Spruce street at 11:30 o'clock, and will drive to Ravinia. Mrs. Van Buskirk is the newly elected circle chairman.

Entertain at Indian Hill

Mrs. Robert Ripley gave one of the largest dinner parties among a group of lovely ones which were given at the opening dinner dance of the season at Indian Hill last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Ripley entertained her guests in honor of Mr. Ripley's birthday. Among others who entertained at parties large and small were Miss Betty Pain, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bulger, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Badgerow, and Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Flood. In addition there were several Dutch treat tables.

Entertains for Sister

Mrs. Arthur McMillan of Wilmette, entertained a group of friends at luncheon and bridge Thursday of last week at the Edgewater Beach hotel in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Meyer of Tyler, Texas. After a ten day visit here Mrs. Meyer left Monday for her home.

Sunset Ridge Open Its Season With Gala Event

The inaugural dinner dance at the Sunset Ridge club was held May 29, with an attendance considerably greater than that of any other opening party in the club's life.

A number of members entertained guests at the dinner, among those from Winnetka being Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kudner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barnum. Many other members formed the always popular Dutch treat tables and so were gathered into congenial groups.

Announcement of the entertainment schedule for the 1928 season schedules the club's usual Saturday dinner dances, Tuesday women's golf events, and the Wednesday bridge affairs for women. The club's annual invitation tourney, the Stampede, will be held July 11.

Completion of the new locker rooms and lounges in the men's and women's sections of the clubhouse finds Sunset Ridge equipped in excellent fashion. Considerable construction and improvement work is in progress on the course with the prospect of having the course in splendid condition before the Fourth of July events.

Former Winnetkan Guest of Honor at Several Affairs

Mrs. Joseph Husband, who formerly lived on Blackthorn road, and is now a resident of Bedford Hills, N. Y., has been visiting her father, Francis C. Brown at 1035 Pine street. Mrs. Husband's many Winnetka friends are enjoying this fleeting glimpse of her and several have entertained in her honor. Mrs. Harry Edmonds, 670 Blackthorn road, gave a dinner party at Indian Hill on Wednesday for sixteen guests, and Mrs. Frank Blatchford invited a few of her own and Mrs. Husband's mutual friends to a small informal tea at her home, 32 Indian Hill road, last Sunday.

To Marry Eastern Girl

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fahey of Bay State road, Boston, and Beach Bluff, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Franklin D. Rudolph, son of Mrs. Franklin Rudolph of Sheridan road, Winnetka.

Miss Fahey attended Miss Lee's school in Boston and was graduated from Skidmore college in 1926. Mr. Rudolph was graduated from Williams college, class of 1925, and is at present a resident of New York City. The wedding will take place in July.

Engaged

Dr. and Mrs. Amuel B. Spach of 228 Leicester road, Kenilworth announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian, to Paul deLargy. The wedding will probably take place in October. Miss Spach is director of the Winnetka Nursery school and Mr. deLargy is a member of the faculty at the University of Illinois.

Gives Garden Party Today

Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden, 352 Linden street, Winnetka is entertaining the members of the Junior Southern Woman's club at a luncheon and garden party Saturday, June 2. Moving pictures will be taken of the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hobart entertained thirty guests at their home, 660 Prospect avenue, at dinner and dancing last Monday evening. The guests were members of Mrs. Hobart's Reading club.

Buccaneers' Club

Opens Season With Reception June 2

"The Buccaneers are hardy men,
They wear thick leather breeches."

This afternoon the wives of these hardy men engage in the peaceful duty of pouring tea on board the "Port of Missing Men," the club ship of the Buccaneers' club in Wilmette harbor; the flags go up to the masts, and the club is officially declared open for its eighth season.

The board of governors are the hosts of the occasion. They are: Godfrey H. Atkin, president; Lincoln N. Hall, vice-president; Warren Crawford, treasurer; Charles Donaldson, secretary; Richard Bull, fleet captain, and Langdon Pearse, Arthur Sullivan, and Eugene Rummeler, directors.

The Caravel sank a few years ago, but she was raised and the club appears to have overcome that misfortune and to be prospering by reason of its unique design and the opportunity it affords to the members and their friends for indulgence in various aquatic sports and the use of its unusually attractive cafe facilities on its cool decks during the hot summer weather.

The ship is a great favorite with the amateur photographer and it is said she is the most "snap-shotted" vessel in America.

Catholic League Luncheon Will Be Given on June 19

The annual luncheon of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league will be held at the new Columbian Country club at Wheeling on Tuesday, June 19, at 12:30 o'clock. This luncheon had previously been announced as taking place on June 5, but the country club is just opening, in fact the league luncheon is to be the first entertainment of its kind to be held at the club, and it proved impossible to get things in readiness to permit the luncheon to be held as early as June 5.

Following the luncheon there will be cards, bridge, five hundred and bunco, with unusually attractive prizes. Reservations should be sent immediately to Mrs. L. J. Hillman, 353 Park avenue, Glencoe, it is announced.

The Columbian Country club is located on Milwaukee avenue, one mile north of Dundee road on the west side of the road. It is expected that the majority of the guests will drive their own cars but the Columbian motor bus will be able to meet those taking the North Shore Electric. This bus service will, of necessity, be limited, so any one wishing to avail herself of this means of transportation is asked to communicate with Mrs. Hillman as soon as possible.

Mrs. William Schildgen of Evanston is president of the organization and Mrs. R. D. Hessey of Highland Park is program chairman. Mrs. L. J. Hillman is luncheon chairman.

Issue Cards for Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Eckhart have issued invitations for a tea on Wednesday, June 6, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at their residence, 206 Cumberland road, Kenilworth. Receiving with them will be their daughters, Miss Charlotte Capen Eckhart and Miss Marion West Eckhart.

Miss Eleanor Stevens is to be hostess at her home, "The Meadows" in Highland Park, Saturday, June 2, at a 1 o'clock picnic for the Chicago Smith College club.
