Winnetka Youth to Attend School Camp for Chicago Boys

Felix C. Balak, son of Mrs. F. Balak, 395 Rosewood avenue, Winnetka, is enrolled to attend the big camp for public school boys near Mercer, Wis. Final arrangements for the camp, which opens July 2, are being rushed by Major F. L. Beals, the officer of the army who will be in command of the camp, from his offices at the Chicago Board of Education. Tentage and equipment which are supplied by the United States Government are already on the grounds and the final details of the work on the camp itself are being rushed. The big new mess hall which will seat 600 is nearing completion.

The sanitary arrangements are planned to meet the requirements of Dr. Arnold H. Kegel, Chicago's health commissioner, and the Wisconsin State Department of Health.

The assignments of the large staff of army officers, teachers and special instructors has been announced. Dr. H. H. Gentles of the Chicago first aid chapter of the American Red Cross will have charge of the camp hospital and he will be assisted by three physicians and a nurse, thus assuring the best of care for the health of the boys in camp.

Spruce Street "Gang" Just Can't Be Curbed

In one-sided combat, the Spruce street baseball team ran rampant over Fell's Clothiers last Monday by a score of 36-6. Fell's team, rather haughty after defeating all previous challengers, was no match for the slugging West Siders, who have not had their slate marred for the last three years. The Clothiers got away to a flying start in the first inning due to a hit and several errors which netted them two runs. The Spruce Street aggregation, however, quickly solved the twisters which Hoagland was throwing, and the game was put on ice after the fourth inning, which also meant the dismissal of Hoagland.

"Moth" McFadzean who took up the burden for Hoagland, was sent to the showers in the next inning when nine men crossed the plate. Pete Luchessi, who was throwing baseballs before many of his teammates were able to talk, and who was labeled as "through" by the Winnetka baseball team, demonstrated that he still possessed some of his old time cunning by allowing only seven hits.

Next Tuesday the West Siders will clash with the Triangle club, who expect to turn the tables and do what no other team has been able to do for the past three years.

Game called at 7 at the Skokie school.

CIRCLES PLAN PICNIC

The Pine and Cherry Street circles are giving a picnic for twenty-five little boys and girls from the Chicago Commons Tuesday, June 19, at the Lake park.

Mrs. Herbert K. Humphrey, who is living in the Beardslee house at 560 Elm street this summer with her family, left on Thursday evening for the East to attend her class reunion at Vassar. Mrs. Humphrey will be gone a short time and after her return will be here but a few weeks before leaving with her father, M. K. Meyer, for Europe. They will sail from New York on July 7.

Mrs. W. G. Weil, 608 Willow road, returned Tuesday from Burlington, Iowa, where she spent the past week.
