

Honors for Pupils at Final Assembly of New Trier Year

At a recognition assembly held at New Trier last Tuesday morning many students received prizes and awards for various achievements. The first awards were made by Otto R. Barnett of Glencoe, who has made it his custom to award in the spring of each year prizes for the three best bird essays by New Trier students. This year the awards went to Robert King, Wilmette; Grace Cooke, Wilmette, and Robert Wilkins, Wilmette.

The next award, sponsored by the Wilmette State bank, was made for the three best scholars in the department. The winners were Victor Deinelin, Wilmette; Howard Bleser, Wilmette, and Vera McKay, Wilmette.

The Harvard Book prize, given by the Harvard Club of Chicago to the best junior student at New Trier each year, was awarded to Robert Marcus of Wilmette.

The assembly closed with the singing of the New Trier Loyalty song. It was the last time the entire student body will be assembled in the auditorium, since future assemblies will be held in the new gymnasium of the school.
