"Surely some one on the north shore has a victrola he or she is willing to pass on to the disabled soldiers at Great Lakes! Men's clothing is also very acceptable," so reads an announcement from the Neighbors' committee for friendly co-operation with ex-service men. Mrs. Jane Prentiss, Kenilworth 127, or Mrs. Frank Nason, Kenilworth 4363, will make arrangements to collect any contributions.

The committee from the Neighbors, the Kenilworth woman's club, will make its next visit to Great Lakes Monday, June 11.

There are two girls from Kenilworth who are graduating this year, Miss Elizabeth Alger and Miss Phoebe Hedrick. The graduating class is holding a breakfast preceding the exercises when the girls are to wear for the last time, their "middies," which is the school uniform. After the exercises there is a luncheon at the Glenview Country club followed in the evening by the annual June Prom. A garden party will follow the dancing at the Prom on the lawn and in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook of Evanston, if the weather permits.
