"Waltz of the Dogs," Theater Club Drama

Leonid Andreyev's great tragedy of frustration, "The Waltz of the Dogs," will continue at the Theater club, Chicago, this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, under the direction of Nathan H. Miller.

Of this drama, Andreyev writes: "The Waltz of the Dogs' represents the most hidden, cruel meaning of tragedy which renounces the meaning and reason of human existence."

Nathan H. Miller and Paul G. Tschannen head the cast, assisted by Miss Billie Durham and George Korwyn. This presentation of "The Waltz of the Dogs," is another striking reason for the existence of the so-called "little" theater.

Performances at the Theater club, located at 1358 North Clark street, start promptly at 8:45 P. M.

70TH CLASS AT N. U.

Edward Price Bell to Give Commencement Oration June 18

Edward Price Bell, an Evanstonian who has gained wide recognition as foreign correspondent for the Chicago Daily News, will be commencement speaker Monday, June 18, at Northwestern university.

The 70th annual commencement program will culminate the customary long series of events surrounding the close of the university's spring quarter and the graduation of the senior class. Ceremonies will be held in the university gymnasium at 10:30 in the morning.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached at the gymnasium at 3:30 Sunday afternoon June 17, by the Rev. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, a Northwestern alumnus. That evening the annual candlelight service will be held in the gymnasium at 9.

Program Begins June 12

The program of events leading up to commencement will open June 12. That evening the School of Music will present its annual concert at the Evanston Woman's club. The reception to students of the commerce and journalism schools will also take place that evening, Dean Ralph G. Heilman and Mrs. Heilman, Dean H. F. Harrington and Mrs. Harrington receiving at 8 at the Georgian hotel.

Friday will be class day for all the Evanston and Chicago schools. Here, at University hall, Julian Lambert will deliver the ivy oration at 10.

At 10:30 the class day gifts will be presented by June Fellows of the School of Speech in Fisk hall chapel. A luncheon will follow at the North Shore hotel. In the afternoon class day exercises will be continued in the gymnasium with the history, oration, will, poem and philosophy read respectively by Ruth Cope, Stanford Clinton, Neal Stanford, Austin Flint and Leon MacDonald.

Saturday Is Alumni Day

Saturday will be alumni day, drawing hundreds of "old grads" back to the campus for the parade of classes at 12:30, the alumni luncheon at 1 at the gymnasium, with the inducting of this year's class into the association, the afternoon of recreation, and, in the evening, also at the gymnasium, reception at which President Walter Dill Scott is annually the host to alumni. Also, Saturday between 4 and 6, members of the Associate alumnae will receive in the Shakespeare garden south of the gymnasium.

Dr. J. H. Wigmore, dean of the law school, and Mrs. Wigmore will entertain the seniors at their home, 207 Lake street, Evanston, Wednesday, June 13.

MUSEUM TOURS

"Ocean Animals" and "China," at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. respectively, are the subjects of guide-lecture tours at Field Museum of Natural History on Monday, June 11. Subjects other days next week, at the same hours, are: Tuesday, "Curious Geological Formations" and "Trees and Wood Products"; Wednesday, "The Philippines" and "Skeletal Structure of Animals"; Thursday, two general tours; and Friday, "Melanesia" and "Iron." These tours of museum exhibits under the guidance of staff lecturers are free. Parties assemble inside the north entrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Munroe Cole, who have been staying at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Campbell, 815 Lake avenue, have moved into the home they recently have completed on Arbor Vitae road in Winnetka.

The State of Illinois gave its veterans of the World War a bonus of $55,000,000.

New LA SALLE FIVE-PASSENGER SEDAN

$2350
f. o. b. Detroit

with CADILLAC-built engine
90-degree, V-type, 8-cylinder

Colors and lines can be copied, but not the amazing performance of the 90-degree, V-type, 8-cylinder engine which Cadillac builds for Cadillac and La Salle cars exclusively.

All La Salle models are powered with this famous engine, developed to new heights of performance—and all are offered now at substantially lower prices, made possible by demand and large production.

In addition to the new five-passenger family sedan at $2350, La Salle offers five additional new models up to $2875, f. o. b. Detroit. Under the General Motors liberal payment plan, it is easy to pay for a La Salle out of income. The La Salle you buy will also include equipment usually considered "extra."
