

Executives of State Garden Club to Meet

The executive committee of the Garden Club of Illinois will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday, June 11, at the Hotel Sherman, at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at the close of the morning session.

At present this group consists of eight members: the five officers of the club, Mrs. Frederick Fisher of Lake

Bluff, a member of the Glencoe Garden club, president; Mrs. Ernest C. Hoefler of Riverside, vice-president; Mrs. Charles D. Ewer of Wilmette, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank W. Kingsley of Evanston, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George M. Kendall of Glen Ellyn, treasurer; and Mrs. V. K. Spicer of Kenilworth, member of the Lake Forest Garden club, Mrs. Fred Court of West Chicago, and Mrs. John

A. Grier of Oak Park.

In addition to the executive board, there is a board of directors made up of fifteen members, that meets once a year.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wilson of Port Arthur, Canada, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Sommer, 425 Provident avenue. Mrs. Sommer is entertaining in their honor this evening at a dinner dance at her home.

Kenilworth Pupil Wins Third Prize for Home Poster

Earl Moss, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Moss, 316 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, has won third place in a state-wide ideal home poster contest for pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and the first year high school students in Illinois public schools.

The contest was sponsored by the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs as an incentive to interest citizens in a campaign for well equipped homes now being conducted by the federation.

Earl is in the seventh grade at the Joseph Sears school at Kenilworth and placed third among a field of hundreds of contestants from schools in all parts of Illinois. The poster which won him the prize will be on exhibit at the annual Joseph Sears exhibit to be held at the school tonight. The poster was also on exhibition at the American Home Exposition held at the Stevens hotel in connection with the state convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs from May 14 to 19.

Prizes were awarded on the basis of originality and general neatness of the posters submitted. The judges were Mrs. Constant C. Hopkins, chairman of the department of the American home; Mrs. Clarence C. Goodwin, chairman of the convention exposition committee; and Keith Spade, director of the public service speakers' bureau.

Posters were of both exterior and interior design, showing either a house and grounds or a living room, kitchen or laundry. The poster made by Earl Moss was an exterior design.
