

Art League Members Get Invitation to Join Sketch Group

The board members of the North Shore Art league held a meeting Thursday, May 31, at which future plans were discussed. An invitation given by Lionel Robertson of Ravinia, president of the organization, to all members of the league to join a group of sketchers—who meet every Saturday during the summer—at the Ravinia post office at 2 o'clock and go in a body to some interesting spot to sketch. This group is rather a unique organization since it has no dues, no president or officers but a sizable number of interested members. It is hoped that many of the league members will take advantage of Mr. Robertson's invitation.

The board also considered the advisability of holding an out-of-door sketch mart in the early fall. This would probably take place on one of the Village Greens of the north shore towns and would undoubtedly be an interesting event to most north shore people. This kind of mart has been very popular in Philadelphia where a very informal one is held every year.

"Unity of Religions," Next Baha'i Lecture

Mrs. Corinne True of Winnetka will be the speaker next Sunday, at 4 o'clock, in the Baha'i foundation hall, Linden avenue, near Sheridan road, Wilmette. The subject selected is "The Fundamental Unity of All Religions."

"True religion is the basis of divine civilization and not war, destined to be the cause of friendship and amity between the peoples of the earth, the illumination of humanity, rendering service to the world of morality; and conferring everlasting life," states a comment on the lecture.

These Sunday lectures are all free with no collections.

Milan Lusk Will Tour England This Summer

Milan Lusk, internationally famous violinist, who left Wilmette recently on a European concert tour, was heard in London May 20 and his playing made such an impression that one of the leading London managers, Fred Williams, offered him a tour in July of some of the important English towns including Toquay, Ramsgate, Bay View, Eastbourn and other centers.

Meantime Mr. Lusk will have in June several appearances in conjunction with the Prague Czechoslovak Festival to commemorate the tenth year of that republic's independence.

Charles V. Sommer, 425 Provident avenue, recently returned from New York City, where he had been on business.

Howard P. Savage Heads Lewis Institute Alumni

Howard P. Savage, past national commander of the American Legion, was elected president of the Alumni association of Lewis Institute, Chicago, at a meeting of the association this week. Mr. Savage was in command of the American Legion excursion to Europe in 1927, when 28,000 American ex-service men revisited the lands across the sea. At present he is assistant manager of the North Shore line with offices at Highwood.

A home town enterprise backed by national experience

THERE are twenty-four Bell operating companies devoting their energies to telephone problems throughout the United States. One of these is the Illinois Bell Telephone Company. It has 30,000 men and women—friends and neighbors of the other people in their towns—working to maintain in its territory the best standards in telephony now known.

In New York, in the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Bell Telephone Laboratories, are 5,000 persons, including scientists, engineers and consultants in management, engaged in inventing better apparatus, and discovering better ways to do things.

The Illinois Bell Telephone Company with its 30,000 employees has the use of all that this group of 5,000 in New York discover and perfect. Likewise the twenty-three other operating companies. Behind every telephone in city or hamlet is the national organization for developing the telephone art.
