

Most Important at Vacation Time— Insure Your Household!

Empty homes are always most likely to lure prowlers. Sorrowful owners can tell you of houses ransacked during prolonged absence. Police protection here is first rate, but there is only one way to protect yourself from loss beyond a doubt. Insure your household effects before you leave.

Silverware, jewelry, clothing, bric-a-brac, rugs and other valuable furnishings—insure them all. Bulk does not prevent their being removed, though it may keep you from storing them in vaults. How can you expect to have perfect enjoyment and repose this summer if the thought of your house, empty and unguarded, is constantly on your mind?

Quinlan & Tyson offer burglary insurance as an essential part of their program to look out for the best interests of North Shore property owners. Complete coverage will be given at reasonable rates. Take care of this important vacation detail before you forget it.
