"Jazz Butterflies" is Next Kvale Production

What Al Kvale promises will be one of the fastest and cleverest stage shows of the season, "Jazz Butterflies," is to be one of the big attractions at the Norshore theater beginning Sunday. Lang and Voelk, Ernie and Fisher, May Wynne, Keo Taki Oki and the Flaming Butterfly ballet will help Kvale and his jazz collegians put the show across.

On the screen Norma Shearer will appear in her latest film, "The Actress." Miss Shearer portrays the role of Rose Trelawney, an actress who attempts to change her station in life in order to make possible her marriage to the man she loves. "Her light comedy touches and her delicate handling of the emotional scenes prove her worthy of the title of this picture," is the comment of one critic.

Ralph Forbes and Owen Moore are also in the cast. Forbes does excellent work as the leading man and Moore plays well his part as the penniless playwright.

ARLISS IN "SHYLOCK"

It is announced that George Arliss will exhibit his "Shylock" next fall in Chicago on its way to the Pacific coast.

Galaxy of Stars to Be Viewed at Teatro del Lago

A galaxy of movie stars including Tom Mix, Chester Conklin, Gary Cooper, Fay Wray, William Russell, Jean Hersholt, Alice Joyce and Ramon Novarro will be seen on the Teatro del Lago screen during the coming week.

Tom Mix heads the list in his latest Fox production "Hello Cheyenne" which will be shown tomorrow. Wyoming furnishes the scenic background for this picture, which is a dramatic story of the fight between two rival telephone companies, each striving to be the first to complete the line between Cheyenne and Rawhide, thereby winning a monopoly on the business. Caryl Lincoln, a beautiful daughter of the West, will play opposite Mix.

The main plot of "The Big Noise," starring Chester Conklin and Alice White, centers around the attempts of a gang of crooked politicians to control the governor's chair in the state of New York. This picture will be shown Sunday, June 10.

Characterized as the companion picture to "Wings," Paramount's great epic of the air, "The Legion of the Condemned," another story of the war from the standpoint of the aviator, comes to the Teatro del Lago Monday and Tuesday. The photoplay deals with an unattached flying unit at the French front, composed of men who, because of their dark pasts, wanted to die. Into this group of men who welcomed death comes Gary Cooper as the young American newspaper man, betrayed by his sweetheart, Fay Wray, who turns out to be a spy.

A double attraction will feature the Teatro del Lago program for next Wednesday—William Russell in "The Escape" and Jean Hersholt and Alice Joyce in "13 Washington Square." The first is a Paul Armstrong play of New York night light, while the latter is a mystery-comedy dealing with the efforts of a mother to keep her son and his sweetheart apart.

Ramon Navarro and Jean Crawford are co-starred in "Across to Singapore," to be shown at the Teatro del Lago next Thursday and Friday. It is a story of the high seas and of adventure in the Orient. One critic remarks, "Just keep in mind that the turmoil of villainy and the sea will not overcome either Ramon Navarro or Joan Crawford." Ernest Torrence, James Mason, and Anna May Wong are other notables in the cast.

WOMAN'S GOLF POSTPONED

The women's tournament scheduled for last Wednesday at Skokie Playfield was postponed, because of inclement weather, until Wednesday, June 13. Playing will begin on that day at 10 in the morning and will be played for blind bogey and a blind hole tournament.

"A Man with Red Hair," produced by A. H. Woods, opens at the Adelphi theater in Chicago Sunday night, June 10, with Crane Wilbur in the title role. The supporting cast includes Joan MacLean, Hugh Sinclair, Alan Brooks, Henry Carvill, and Theodore Scharfe. The play is a dramatization of Hugh Walpole's novel, and has been staged by Joseph Graham.
