

The Boy's Camp

PROBLEM SOLVED

A Conversation Between Tom and Jack

"Hello, Tom! What's wrong this morning? You don't look very happy."

"Oh, there's plenty wrong, Jack. I can't persuade mother and dad to let me go to camp this year. Mother says she's too busy."

"Well Tom, my mother took me over to 'ZICK'S store on the corner, where they have everything a boy needs for camp, and she got it off her mind in a hurry."

"Believe me, kid, I'm all set, with plenty of Underwear, Khaki Shirts, and Trousers, Socks, Handkerchiefs, yes, and even to Mosquito Netting for my cot; and say—we bought the dandiest dark gray all-wool blanket for only $3.95, which mother says is a real bargain . . . and she bought me a peach of a bathing suit too. There's just one thing we forgot and that is Cash's Name Tapes for marking my clothes, and I'm on my way there now to order them."

"So long, Tom, I'll have my mother phone yours and tell her how easy it is to get ready and I'm sure she'll let you go."

CASH'S WOVEN NAMES

Per Gross . . $3.00

Per 1/2 Gross . $2.00

Per 1/4 Gross . $1.50

ORDER TODAY!

Elm Street
at Chestnut

ZICK'S

Telephone
930
Winnetka

Store on the Corner

Miss Grace Herbst Will Spend Summer in Europe

Miss Grace Herbst, a rather well known person to most Winnetkans because of her shop on Lincoln avenue where one buys those very correct things, both large and small, which add that distinctive touch to the home, will not be here this summer to greet her patrons and give them her valuable advice on decorative problems. She is leaving her shop very competently taken care of and is going to Europe for two months.

Miss Herbst is leaving next Wednesday for Montreal and will sail from there on Friday on the Ansonia. She will spend her summer in France and England buying very new and very old things which she will bring back to delight her many patrons here. She will try particularly to find interesting furniture and old fabrics to use in her work as a decorator.

Mrs. Howard J. Noble of Rogers Park entertained at dinner Saturday evening, June 9, in honor of Joan Hoble of Hubbard Woods. The guests were Margaret Kluge, Marguerite Behrens, William Blanford, Margaret Jean St. Clair, Dorothy Smith, Helen Rakers, William Randall, Russell Luce, and Robert Long.

Mrs. Gilbert H. Scribner of 812 Ash street, who left Monday, June 4, with Mr. and Mrs. William Van Dyke, Jr. for the east, is expected to return home next Tuesday, June 19.

Fifty Children of Winnetka Take Part in Big Horse Show

Fifty Winnetka children took part in the fifth annual children's horse show at the Indian Hill Riding club last Saturday. Capt. John Porter, of Knollwood, and Victor Eltinge, of Winnetka, were the judges for the riding events.

Mary Dallas, daughter of Mrs. Donald Dallas, of Winnetka, won the cup for first prize in the novice class for the smallest children. Nora Foreman placed second.

In the boys' obstacle race Donald McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson, of Winnetka, won the prize cup, while Edward Scott took first place in the class for children from ten to twelve years old.

Fanny McPherson won first honors in the junior girls' jumping class. Betsy Ballard was second.

Jane McIntosh won the ladies' saddle race. Jane Darling and Fanny McPherson were winners in the thirteen to sixteen year old class.

First prize in the parents' and children's stunt was won by Colton Daughaday and his children, Marriott, Colton, and William.

GOES TO GEORGIA

Miss Louise Mohr, instructor of social studies at Skokie school, left Sunday for Georgia, where she will spend six weeks at Emery institute.

PHOENIX HOSIERY

"Over-knees" silk, exactly the shade needed for every outfit and for every occasion, is to be had in this remarkable stocking, at popular prices. Smart style combined with economy.

Other Styles and Qualities

$1—$1.50—$1.95—$2.50

Elm Street
at Chestnut

ZICK'S

Telephone
930
Winnetka

Store on the Corner