Graeme Players to Close Season Soon
at Alcyon Theatre

Just two more chances to see and hear the Graeme Players Stock company at the Alcyon theater in Highland Park on Friday nights!

This announcement was confirmed Friday evening after the performance of Booth Tarkington's classic comedy drama, "Clarence," in which, by the way, Joe Driscoll scored the biggest hit of his north shore career as the Tarkington juvenile.

A series of engagements contracted before coming to the Alcyon necessitates the departure of the Graeme Players at the end of this month. However, the Alcyon management assures us that the Players will be back at the Highland Park theater about the middle of August with many more good plays added to a repertoire already replete with hits.

Next Friday, June 22, the Graeme Players will present at the Alcyon William Collier's famous three-act comedy drama, "Nothing But the Truth." The feature picture for the evening will be "Vamping Venus," starring Charles Murray.

On Friday, June 29, the Graeme Players will present their concluding performance in the form of another comedy, "A Full House."

In addition to the performance of the Graeme Players next week, the Alcyon has on its bill several pictures which have recently been showing before loop theater audiences.

Bebe Daniels will hold forth tonight in "The Fifty-Fifty Girl." She will be assisted by the cocky James Hall, who exchanges places with Bebe and plays the part of a demure girl while Miss Daniels does the bossing—that is, until she concedes that a man really is some good after all.

Jean Hersholt and Alice Joyce will be seen in "13 Washington Square" at the Alcyon tomorrow. This is said to be one of the most entertaining mystery-comedies ever filmed.

"Three Sinners" with Pola Negri in the leading role will be the Alcyon attraction next Monday and Tuesday.
This picture was Photoplay's choice for one of the six best during the month of June. It is the story of the disappointed wife determined to recapture her own husband.

"The Crowd," starring Eleanor Boardman and James Murray, is another picture of the six-best type, and it will follow "Three Sinners" at the Alcyon for two days—next Wednesday and Thursday. The plot concerns a white-collar man and his wife and their struggles in a big city.

In "Vamping Venus," the picture to be shown at the Alcyon next Friday in connection with the Graeme Players production, Thelma Todd furnishes the beauty and Charlie Murray supplies the fun. This picture is a comedy nightmare of ancient Greece.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus D. Richards of Hubbard Woods with their daughters, the Misses Fedelia, Mary Louise, and Marcia, will pass a portion of the summer at Frank O. Horton's H. F.
Bar ranch. Mrs. Edwin B. Bartlett and her daughter, Laura, and Leslie Wilson will accompany the Richards.
The party left yesterday. Riding and trout fishing will be the main activities of the party.

—o—
Mrs. Charles H. McNie, 266 Forest avenue, has returned from the Evanston hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

—o—Miss Agnes Spangler, teacher at the Skokie school, will study at the University of Nebraska this summer.

"A Home Bank For Winnetka People"

After the
First Plunge—
Others!

Considerable excitement attends the first plunge of the amateur swimmer. But the ambition to become expert, to "break into the big league" and to know the cooling delight of a perfect swim, all of these combine to overcome the timidity of the beginner, and, after the first plunge—others, and many of them. Without realizing it the novice becomes an expert.

And so the saver. The first plunge into the thick of our financial problems, the knowledge that a little hard work and considerable management must be employed, incline to make us doubtful and backward. But after the first plunge—opening a SAVINGS ACCOUNT—the rest is simple. It is merely the regular, methodical demonstration of "good cents." Be an expert saver and Success will take care of itself.
